INTRODUCTION

Dr. Philip Yang founded California University – Silicon Valley out of his rich and progressive clinical experiences. He found that the key of his successful experiences includes a strong personal and professional philosophy as well as the teachings and clinical training. CUSV is very confident in that providing a strong and well-founded academic underpinning while assisting in the development of students' personal philosophies will lead to exceptional practitioners of Traditional Chinese Medicine.

California University – Silicon Valley is developed from Nine Star University of Health Sciences (NSU).

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

I welcome you to CUSV and I look forward to becoming more acquainted with each of you as you go forward in your education and training to be outstanding Acupuncture and Oriental Medical healthcare providers. Along with faculty and staff, you are regarded as valued members of CUSV. We will strive to challenge and inspire you to do your best academic and clinical work and thereby to produce the skills and competencies required to be highly successful in the world of clinical practice upon graduation. The guidelines contained in this Catalog are designed to maximize your learning experience at CUSV. You will find that it contains information that will be critical in your experience as the official document that defines CUSV's policies and procedures.

As CUSV grows, changes and new policies may be adopted and implemented. And as we grow you will have the opportunity to be a part of the process. If you have any questions or suggestions, please do not hesitate to contact me. It is my earnest desire that your study at CUSV be effective, challenging and rewarding.

Philip Yang, OMD. L.Ac.

any applicable quasi-public regulatory body, or as deemed appropriate by California University – Silicon Valley.

The affairs of California University – Silicon Valley are managed by the Board of Directors. The Board receives recommendations from the University President and Executive Council, on which the President sits, and also includes the Academic Dean, the Director of Administrative Affairs, and the Clinic Director.

Students participate in the decision-making process by completing course evaluations at the end of each trimester and periodic program surveys. Students may also speak to members of the faculty and/or administration about individual concerns or suggestions for the program.

LEARNING AND OTHER PHYSICAL RESOURCES

STUDENT ADVISING AND COUNSELING

The President, Academic Dean, Director of Student Affairs and faculty are available to assist students with all aspects of life at California University – Silicon Valley, whether it is related to academic or nonacademic matters. CUSV also provides academic counseling at least once each trimester during registration periods for determination of Satisfactory Academic Progress. Faculty members and senior students are also available to help student with academic problems.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

All disability-related problems must be arranged through Student Disability Services. Workshops about learning and studying at CUSV are available and are particularly suited to First Year students in the fall trimester. Support in the form of intern clinic and peer supports. Academic Deans, faculty, and other professional staff can help students with problems in academic and career developments.

STUDY AREAS

The student lounge and classroom may be used for study groups. CUSV library and several small carrels available for student study.

LIBRARY

CUSV has a library where all students have access to the books and materials related to their educational needs. Library is open during school office hour. Students can access the library and check out books and journals.

The University Library serves the university community for scholarly study and research endeavors. The library facilities offer reading rooms, individual study carrels, and a student conference room. Total book volumes number approximately 3,500, and the current reference collection comprises over 300 journals, periodicals, and magazines. Reflecting the curricula of the University, Chinese and English language instructional holdings can be used to reinforce and support students' academic success.

STUDENT LOUNGE

The student lounge is open seven days a week during normal student class and clinic hours. Students are invited to use the student lounge during class breaks, between classes or as a place to just relax. The student lounge may be used for social interactions, eating, resting, or studying. The kitchen is well equipped with wireless Internet access, a refrigerator, two microwave ovens, and a washbasin to facilitate preparation of meals. There is also a limited amount of space where personal utensils can be kept.

TEACHING EQUIPMENT AND MATERIALS

Teaching Equipment is provided in classrooms, fully equipped with tables and chairs, white boards, computer and projectors, anatomical models, acupuncture charts, and treatment tables for clinic training demonstrations. Classrooms used for clinical training are supplied with necessary acupuncture supplies such as treatment tables, sterile disposable acupuncture needles, and heat lamps. There is an herbal dispensary in the clinic area. In addition, CUSV provides wireless Internet access to enrolled students. Proper maintenance and respect of the equipment is expected.

ACADEMIC/ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE

Academic/Administrative Office is responsible for course registration and maintenance of all official records related to student enrollment. This includes recording course registration and final grades, monitoring students' graduation requirements, and issuing CUSV transcripts. The Academic/Administrative Office also coordinates course and final examination schedules, and maintains the content of the Catalog. The Director of Student Affairs serves as the FERPA officer for the university.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The University encourages all students to be actively involved with the Student Association. The leaders of Student Association of CUSV are selected on the basis of voluntary application and are voted by all the students of CUSV. It is a student-governing organization. Its aim is to serve as a bridge between the students and the faculty, administration of the university in order to better help the students in their study and campus life.

CAMPUS COMMUNICATIONS

On-campus communications, including the posting of important dates, official announcements, Acupuncture State Board and other professional organizations' news releases, can be found throughout the campus. Announcement of scheduled academic activities, student council meeting times and locations are disseminated by posting on the bulletin boards or are dispatched directly by the administrative staff. There are several bulletin boards located throughout the campus where students will find the important announcements, and other relevant information.

STUDENT HEALTHCARE SERVICES

The Internship Clinic of California University – Silicon Valley offers healthcare services to students and their family members at substantially discounted rates for treatments and some herbal prescriptions.

STUDENT DISABILITY SERVICES

CUSV welcomes students with disabilities to participate fully in all aspects of the university life. Our purpose is to ensure that students with physical, learning or psychological disabilities, or chronic medical conditions are provided with equal access to the program, activities and services. The academic and administrative staff will review students' clinical and educational documentation, and collaborates with students, faculty and staff to arrange reasonable measures that support students' individual needs. Students are encouraged to connect with Student Disability Services as early as possible.

LIVING AND HOUSING

(a) California University – Silicon Valley does not have any type of dormitory facilities under its control.

(b) There is an abundance of varied housing in a wide range of pricing immediately surrounding the campus. The range of housing is usually between $900-$1,200 monthly depending on the number of bedrooms and if shared.

(c) The University bears no responsibility in finding or assisting students in finding housing. The University does, however, have a bulletin board for student use to communicate opportunities for shared housing or for other community and professional listings. The Director of Administrative Affairs is available to make suggestions and help with resources to find housing, but it is the responsibility of the student to find acceptable housing within their own circumstances and needs.

The city of Sunnyvale and the neighboring communities of Santa Clara, Cupertino and Mountain View have extensive rental apartments and housing in all price ranges. The University is also within commuting distance from a number of other residential communities including Los Altos, Saratoga, Campbell, San Jose, Milpitas and Fremont.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

CUSV does not provide job placement assistance of any type. The university does post on the student bulletin boards any substantive and relevant employment opportunities that it receives. CUSV provides counseling in assisting students with resume and cover letter writing.

*These SOC codes are available at <https://www.bls.gov/soc/classification.htm>

ALUMNI

Future CUSV graduates are important to the continued growth and development of the university. Alumni and university interactions enlighten the sharing of experiences between the currently enrolled students and alumni members. Alumni support the University by contributing suggestions for learning methods, by participating in University events, by tutoring students for the California acupuncture licensing exam and other licensing examinations, and by serving as mentors to new students and recent graduates. Alumni also receive discounts for Continuing Education Units (CEU) offered at the California University – Silicon Valley.

STUDENT RIGHTS, PRIVILEGES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

CUSV students have the following rights:

- Receive administrative and academic support from CUSV faculty and staff, including such areas as clarification of CUSV policies and procedures.
- File a complaint or grievance with CUSV or other relevant authorities. Full instructions for how to do so are outlined in the Complaint and Grievance portion of CUSV Catalog.
- Request an amendment or revision to their student records to ensure their accuracy and ensure they are not in violation of the right to privacy.
- Prohibit or restrict disclosure of their information to other individuals or entities
- Inspect and review their CUSV transcripts.

CUSV students have the following privileges:

- Freedom from harassment and discrimination: CUSV students may pursue their educational opportunities free from harassment, including physical abuse, threats or intimidation. CUSV provides equal educational opportunities to its students without regard to age, race, color, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national or ethnic origin, ancestry, genetic information, disability, or military or veteran status. CUSV prohibits discrimination on any of these bases and will take steps necessary to remedy any instances of such discrimination.

- Freedom of speech: Students may express their beliefs, feelings and opinions so long as the manner of expression does not violate another student's rights. For specific examples of such violations, please see our Student Code of Conduct.

All CUSV students are subject to local, state and federal laws. Additionally, CUSV students have the following general responsibilities:

- Provide accurate and complete documentation of academic history to CUSV by the given deadline.
- Know and comply with program requirements and expectations.
- Initiate requests regarding dissemination of information, filing of grievances, or other areas of academic or administrative support.
- Communicate with fellow students and CUSV staff in a professional, polite manner.
- Refrain from deliberately violating the privileges of any other member, and to consider all actions carefully to ensure that they do not unintentionally violate others' privileges. All CUSV students are responsible for their own actions.
- When necessary, report to the proper authorities any non-academic conduct that violates the privileges of others.

Make Use of University Facilities and Services

All regular students have the right to make full use of the facilities and services of the university which are generally available to students. There are, however, some limitations on the availability and use of university resources. Students are expected to use university facilities and services responsibly and with consideration for other members of the university community. Administrative office responsible for providing facilities and services will, upon request, furnish guidelines for their use.

Classroom Rights and Privileges

Instructors are expected to encourage open discussion and inquiry. Students may take reasoned exception to information offered in any course in the continual search for new understanding. Students' views, political associations, and beliefs which are confided to instructors and advisors during the performance of duties are confidential.

Classroom Conduct

Instructors are responsible for presenting appropriate material for courses and students are responsible for learning the material. The academic performance of a student is evaluated in the determination of grades; however, student conduct is important in the academic setting.

Enrollment in a class may be terminated due to unsatisfactory student conduct, undue disrespect toward an instructor or administrator, or academic dishonesty. Each student is responsible for maintaining standards of academic performance established for each course in which the student is enrolled.

Student, Faculty, Staff Relationship

The relationship between students and faculty/staff is one which is based upon mutual respect. Students see faculty and staff in a variety of roles: teachers, counselors, librarians, administrators, advisors, employers, supervisors, colleagues. In those rare instances where a student may wish to pursue a grievance having to do with grades or actions taken by a faculty member or a staff member of an office or department which adversely affected the student's academic progress, the university provides a procedure by which the grievance may be pursued. The rules for the process are contained in the Rules Governing the Operations of the Board of Academic Appeals, copies of which are available in the Administrative Office.

A. In the Classroom

1. Student Rights

A student who enrolls in a course has the following rights:

- To know from the instructor, the goals and content of the course
- To know from the beginning, the instructor's expectations and grading methods
- To evaluate on the materials of the course and not on extraneous matters
- To consult with the instructor outside the classroom on matters related to the course

2. Student Responsibilities

Student who enrolls in a course has responsibility to observe the standards of academic performance defined by the instructor and the standards of conduct established by the instructor to assure the freedom of the instructor to teach and the freedom of the other students to learn.

B. Outside the Classroom

Students have a right to the services provided by faculty and staff, including such services as academic advising, counseling over a broad range of problem areas, dissemination of information, and clarification of university policies and procedures, including those involving grievances. Because of the size and complexity of the university, students have the primary responsibility for initiating requests for such services, although faculty and staff are expected to be sensitive to student's needs and to offer assistance if students appear to need it.

STUDENT RECORDS

A. Student Records Rules

The university has adopted rules which govern the form and variety of student records collected and maintained by the university, the nature of information collected, and the way in which student information is recorded, maintained, and eventually disposed of, consistent with federal and state regulations. Copies of the rules (in accordance with Public Law 93-380 the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, i.e., the Buckley Amendment) are available in the Office of the President. Students have a right to expect that information about themselves of a private, personal, or confidential nature which they share with faculty and staff will be disclosed only according to student records rules. Faculty and staff may provide judgments of a student's ability and character to others in appropriate circumstances, normally with the knowledge and consent of the student concerned, and in accordance with the university's rules on student records.

B. Students' Rules

The rules on student records also define the following rights of students with respect to their records and the procedures to be followed to guarantee those rights:

1. The right to inspect and review information contained in their educational records
2. The right to challenge the contents of their educational records
3. The right to submit an explanatory statement for inclusion in the educational record if the outcome of the challenge is unsatisfactory
4. The right to prevent disclosure, with certain exceptions, of personally identifiable information
5. The right to secure a copy of the university rules, which includes the location of all educational records
6. The right to file complaints with the appropriate federal and state agency(ies) concerning alleged failures by the university to comply with applicable laws, rules, and their implementing regulations

C. Students' Responsibilities

Students are responsible for furnishing, completely and accurately, such pertinent information as required by the university so that it may perform its proper function as an educational institution. If students' circumstances change, e.g., name, address, financial situation, etc., they are responsible for seeing that proper university officials are informed of such changed circumstances.

STUDENT LIFE

Student Life encompasses a broad area, including the freedoms to form associations, to inquire and express opinions, and to participate in institutional government.

A. Association

Students have the right to form organizations and to join associations to promote their common interests. In doing so, they have the responsibility to follow university policies and procedures, copies of which are available in the Administrative Office.

B. Inquiry and Expression

Students and student organizations have the right to examine and discuss all questions of interest to them, to express opinions publicly and privately, to support causes, and to invite and hear any person of their own choosing. Such activities shall not disrupt the regular and essential operation of the university. Students and student organizations are responsible for following the policies and procedures related to these activities, copies of which are available in the Administrative Office.

C. Student Participation in Institutional Government

Students have the right to express their views by lawful procedures on issues of institutional policy and on matters of general interest to the student body, and to participate in the formulation and application of institutional policy affecting academic and student affairs. Student government, the Associated Students of California University - Silicon Valley, is the primary vehicle for student participation in institutional government, and its role is explicitly stated in its constitution and by-laws, copies of which are available in the Administrative Office. Other opportunities for involvement in academic and student affairs areas may also be found in the Administrative Office. Having become involved in institutional governance, students are responsible for fulfilling the obligations they have undertaken.

RETENTION OF STUDENT RECORDS

A detailed system of records is maintained by the University for each student. Each student's file shall contain application documents, admissions credentials, records of attendance, grades earned, satisfactory academic progress records, written communication with the student, and any disciplinary actions taken. Fireproof storage shall be provided for the safekeeping of student records including records of graduation and degrees granted. Such records shall be considered the permanent property of the University and shall not be available for loan or release to others without the written consent of the appropriate student. Student records shall be retained permanently by the University.

UNIVERSITY POLICY AND PROCEDURES

INTRODUCTION AND PURPOSE

The students of CUSV are responsible for complying with policies, standards, rules, and requirements for academic and social behavior formulated for the maintenance of an orderly and responsible functioning of the university community. Students enrolled at the university's campus are expected to uphold these standards both on and off campus. At the same time, students have protection through orderly procedures against arbitrary or capricious actions or decisions by university authorities. Due process is recognized as essential to the proper enforcement of university rules. The purpose of this document is to provide a procedure and rules by which a student will be afforded due process in the matter of alleged violations of university standards, rules, and requirements governing academic and social conduct of students.

The university recognizes a responsibility to resolve behavior problems before they escalate into serious problems requiring the application of these rules. Therefore, the president shall generally review and/or investigate student behavioral problems put forward by university community members, or which otherwise come to the attention of the president through the administrative office or other official university reports. The president and the Problem Solving Team shall be as proactive as possible concerning the resolution of student behavioral problems and use reasonable arbitration and conflict resolution methods in order to prevent such problems from further interfering with the university community or the student's own educational progress.

The president shall provide for due process for students throughout the behavioral problem-solving intervention by following the proper steps related to the initiation, investigation, and disposition of complaints against a student as outlined in Section III of this document.

Any student is subject to these rules, independent of any other status the individual may have with the university. Any action taken against a student under these rules shall be independent of other actions taken by virtue of another relationship with the university in addition to that of the student.

CUSV distinguishes its responsibility for student conduct from the controls imposed by the larger community beyond the university, and of which the university is a part. The university does not have the responsibilities of a parent for the conduct of students. When students are charged with violations of laws of the nation or state, or ordinances of the county or city, the university will neither request nor agree to special consideration for students because of their status as students, but the university will cooperate with law enforcement agencies, courts, and any other agencies in programs for rehabilitation of students.

CUSV reserves the right to impose the provisions of this policy and apply further sanctions before or after law enforcement agencies, courts, and other agencies have imposed penalties or otherwise disposed of a case.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR STUDENT CONDUCT

NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

California University - Silicon Valley does not and shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status, in any of its activities or operations. The policy applies to all students, faculty and staff for issues involving other employees, students, and/or third parties with contractual relationships with the college.

California University - Silicon Valley is an equal opportunity employer. We will not discriminate and will take affirmative action measures to ensure against discrimination in admission of students, education policies and other conditions of employment against any students, faculty and staff on the bases of race, color, gender, national origin, age, religion, creed, disability, veteran's status, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression.

HARASSMENT PREVENTION POLICY

The University is committed to providing a learning environment free of any form of harassment. University policy prohibits sexual harassment and harassment or discrimination because of pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions, race, religious creed, color, gender, national origin, ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, marital status, sexual orientation, age, gender or any other basis protected by federal, state or local law, ordinance or regulation. All such behavior is unlawful. Our harassment prevention policy applies to all students as well as all persons involved in University operations and prohibits unlawful harassment by any member of the University community, as well as by or of any person doing business with or for the University, including subcontractors, suppliers, patients, and volunteers.

Prohibited unlawful harassment includes, but is not limited to, the following behaviors:

- Verbal conduct such as epithets, derogatory jokes or comments, slurs or unwanted sexual advances, invitations or comments
- Visual conduct such as derogatory and/or sexually-oriented gestures, posters, photography, cartoons, drawings, e-mail and faxes
- Physical conduct such as assault, unwanted touching, blocking normal movement or interfering with work because of sex, race or any other protected basis
- Threats and demands to submit to sexual requests as a condition of continued enrollment, or to avoid some other loss, and offers of any benefits in return for sexual favors
- Retaliation for having reported or threatened to report harassment.

If a student believes that he/she has been unlawfully harassed or discriminated against, he/she must provide a written complaint to the Academic Dean or other University official as soon as possible after the incident. The student's written complaint should include details of the incident or incidents, names of the individuals involved and names of any witnesses. The University will strive to protect the student's privacy. However, confidentiality cannot be guaranteed and the University reserves the right to use information disclosed in the complaint to investigate the situation.

Upon receipt of a complaint, the University will undertake a thorough, objective and good-faith investigation of the harassment allegations. If the University determines that harassment or discrimination has occurred, effective remedial action will be taken in accordance with the circumstances involved. Any member of the community determined by the University to be responsible for harassment, discrimination, or retaliation will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including termination or expulsion. Failure to comply with a University investigation will also result in discipline, up to and including termination or expulsion.

Students will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint and/or assisting in a complaint or investigation. Further, the University will not tolerate or permit retaliation by any member of the University community against any complainant or anyone assisting in a harassment or discrimination investigation. The University encourages all members of the community to report any incidents of harassment or discrimination forbidden by this policy immediately so the complaints can be quickly and fairly resolved. Students should be aware that the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing investigate and prosecute complaints of prohibited harassment, discrimination, and retaliation. If a student thinks that he/she has been harassed or has been retaliated against for resisting or complaining, he/she may file a complaint with the appropriate agency.

DISABILITIES POLICY

California University - Silicon Valley is committed to complying with all the mandates set forth in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act. California University - Silicon Valley facilitates access to university programs, activities, and services for students with disabilities.

Utilizing documentation of disability and information obtained in consultation with the student, CUSV staff assesses the effects of a student's disability on his/her ability to access the educational process and identifies reasonable academic adjustments. In addition, CUSV works to sensitize university faculty and staff to the needs of students with disabilities and helps students obtain the materials, equipment, and assistance necessary to successfully pursue their education.

The first floor of the University building is wheelchair accessible, but not all the classrooms do. Any of physical, psychological, emotional, and learning disabilities students and patients may contact the Administration Office at (408) 532-5567 for assistance.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

California University - Silicon Valley strives to provide an environment in which the dignity and worth of the members of the school community are based on mutual respect. Sexual harassment is considered unprofessional conduct by employees and students and is unacceptable behavior. It will not be tolerated. California University - Silicon Valley is committed to an employment and academic environment that encourages excellence. This environment includes freedom from all forms of harassment for students, faculty, staff, and applicants who seek to join the University. Sexual harassment violates California University - Silicon Valley policies as well as local, state, and federal law. It is a violation of University policy for anyone to retaliate against an employee, student, or applicant who makes a claim of sexual harassment. Any person violating University policy on sexual harassment is subject to disciplinary action such as reprimand, suspension, or termination of employment or enrollment. The type of disciplinary action imposed will depend on the severity of the offense.

General Definition of Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is an unwelcome sexual advance, request for sexual favors, verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature directed towards a student, employee, or applicant seeking to join California University - Silicon Valley. When an individual is in a position to influence the education, employment, or participation in a school activity of another person, even apparent consensual sexual relationships often constitute sexual harassment. Sexual harassment occurs when any of the following circumstances exist:

1. Submission to such conduct is made, either explicitly or implicitly as a term or condition of a person's status in a program for academic, employment, or admission decision.
2. Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for academic decisions or employment decisions, or
3. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of "unreasonable interfering" with an employee's work or student's academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, coercive, and offensive work or educational environment. For purposes of this policy, "unreasonable interfering" is defined as improper, unjustifiable behavior going beyond what is appropriate, warranted, or natural.
4. Sexual harassment is not limited to action by a supervisor or instructor but can include conduct by a co-worker or student.

STUDENT CONDUCT

Each student is expected to be an example of proper conduct. This includes the student's attitudes, actions, appearance, and attire. The University's administration has the authority to take appropriate action through the Student Body Association or administrative disciplinary measures if this code of conduct is not adhered to. It is the policy of the University to prohibit smoking except in designated areas and prohibits unlawful possession or use of controlled substances or alcoholic beverages. Firearms possession anywhere on campus is STRICTLY PROHIBITED.

CODE OF CONDUCT

The disciplinary standards outlined in this catalog include rules and enforcement measures. These are the basic guidelines for conduct on the premises of the University, at any school sponsored activity and, under certain circumstances, behavior in the outside community. At any time, the University reserves the right to exclude students whose conduct is deemed undesirable or prejudicial to the University community's best interests. All amendments of the standards must be approved by the Dean in conjunction with the Executive Council. These standards are subject to amendment at any time with notices being posted on the campus bulletin boards and/or with the amendments prominently displayed in the campus newsletter.

The disciplinary standards described herein afford procedural fairness to the accused student and flexibility for the administration to exercise sanctions based on the individual circumstances of each case. Behavior resulting in disciplinary action may involve, but is not limited to, one or a combination of those listed below:

- Possession of alcoholic beverages on campus or at any school activities at any time
- Intoxication of the student
- No student will threaten another student, faculty, staff or administrator
- Falsification of University documents, records, or identification
- Dishonesty in any form, including plagiarism, illegal copying of software, or knowingly furnishing false information to the University
- Cheating or compromising test materials
- Removal of library materials without permission
- Disruption of class or academic activities
- Usage of abusive language to another student, faculty, staff, or administrator
- Theft or damage of University property or fellow student's property
- Illegal intoxication with controlled substances physical assault for any reason except clear self-defense
- Vandalism of University property
- Conviction for a crime beyond normal traffic violations
- Aiding and/or abetting in any of the above situations
- Possession of firearms or illegal weapons as defined by state and federal guidelines
- Violation of any state policies or regulations governing student's relationship with the University

Students accused of improper conduct shall be given adequate notice of the charges and an opportunity to appeal the case to the grievance committee. Written notice of specific charges made against a student shall be given at least 15 (fifteen) days before the student is to appear before the committee. While disciplinary action against a student is pending, the student's status does not change unless it is found that the student poses a significant threat to the University community. Hearings are private. The accused student is afforded the opportunity to rebut all charges. The University establishes the charges by a preponderance of the evidence. The student has the right to appeal the disciplinary actions to the Academic Dean, but on the grounds that fair procedure was not followed by the committee or that the evidence in the record does not justify the decision or the sanction. A record will be kept of the disciplinary action taken and the basis for this decision. The disciplinary action taken may be reflected on the student's permanent record as part of the disciplinary punishment. Disciplinary action invoked by the committee may involve, but is not limited to, one or a combination of the alternatives listed as follows:

Dismissal:

Separation of the student from the University on a permanent basis.

Suspension:

Separation of the student from the University for a Specific Length of time.

Probation:

Status of the student indicating that the relationship with the University is tenuous and that the student's record will be reviewed periodically to determine suitability to remain enrolled.

Specific limitations and restrictions on the student's privileges may accompany probation. University policy stipulates that a student dismissed by disciplinary action, from either the University or a course, will not receive a refund of tuition or other fees. Students dismissed from the University for disciplinary reasons must exclude themselves from the University classes, activities, facilities, and buildings. Any exception must be approved by the President. A student who is dismissed may reapply for admission two terms after the dismissal.

DRUG, ALCOHOL AND SMOKING POLICIES

Conforming to federal law, California University - Silicon Valley does not permit the use of alcoholic beverages on campus and does not tolerate the use of illegal substances on campus. California University - Silicon Valley does recognize that occasionally a student may need help in these areas. Students or employees who need help are encouraged to speak to the academic dean, clinic director or other trusted staff member for referral to an appropriate counseling source. Area counseling and referral services are listed in the "Drug Free Campus Policy and Procedures" published for all students and employees.

It is the policy of the Board of Trustees that the learning environment be free of prohibited or controlled substances. Specifically, all members of the University community which includes administration, faculty, staff, students, and guests, must abstain from the consumption of alcohol, narcotics, and/or misuse of prescription drugs while on University property and on any field trip sponsored as part of the instructional program. Violation of this policy may lead to suspension, expulsion, termination, and in the context of criminal activity, referral to law enforcement agencies. Employees and students having difficulties with addictive substances can seek confidential advisement from the Student and Alumni Services Coordinator for referrals to agencies providing assistance with alcohol or drug related problems.

It is the policy of CUSV that smoking is prohibited in all University facilities. At the discretion of the administration, an outside area may be set aside within the University facilities to accommodate students, staff members, and faculty who smoke. Violation of the smoking policy may result in suspension or termination of academic status or employment.

CAMPUS SECURITY

In accordance with the Higher Education Act of 1965 as amended by Public Laws 101- 542, 102-26, 102-325 and 103-208, all related to the Student Right-To-Know and Campus Security Act, the University makes available to current students, prospective students, employees, and prospective employees, information about campus safety policies and procedures and statistics concerning whether certain crimes took place on campus. The latest report will be posted on the campus bulletin board, and is available upon request by contacting the Student and Alumni

Services Coordinator or by writing to the administrative office.

Any incidence is a cause of concern to the University. Therefore, students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to report any crimes or suspected crimes to the Director of Administrative Affairs who will immediately notify appropriate local law enforcement agency. In the absence of the Director of Administrative Affairs and other officials, the individual should directly notify the local law enforcement agency.

UNIVERSITY CATALOG

It is the responsibility of the student to be familiar with the information presented in this catalog and to know and observe all policies and procedures related to the program the student is pursuing. Regulations will not be waived nor exceptions granted because a student pleads ignorance of these policies or procedures. While academic advisors will assist students in every way possible, the responsibility for following all policies, procedures, requirements, and deadlines will rest with the student. A student is expected to satisfy the requirements of the catalog in effect at the time the student is admitted to the University and begins course work in a degree program. However, a student may elect to graduate under the catalog in force at the time of graduation provided the student complies with all requirements of the later catalog.

POLICY CONCERNING APPROPRIATE ATTIRE

All students entering the University to attend class, study, work, or visit are asked to be mindful of the professional environment of this medical institution. Students are expected to dress and act respectfully of patients, visitors, employees, and other students in the building. All students must wear shoes at all times, unless otherwise instructed by their professor for educational purposes. Inappropriate, excessively revealing, intentionally provocative, or excessively casual (e.g., bathing attire, pajamas, etc.) clothing is not considered acceptable.

Students working in, or conducting their internship at CUSV Clinic must fully comply with the guidelines established in the Clinic Handbook (received by all students working or practicing inside the Clinic).

ACADEMIC PROBATION AND DISMISSAL

It is expected that students maintain good academic standing with a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.3 each trimester. GPA falls below 2.3 will lead to academic probation for a period of two trimesters. The students' GPA must be maintained at 2.3 or higher during the probationary period. Probationary status will be removed and student will be considered to be in good academic standing after satisfactory probation period ends. Students who do not clear probation may be dismissed from the university. An academic notice will be given if a student fails a course twice. CUSV may dismiss students who failed on his/her third attempt in securing a passing grade of such course.

All students on academic probation will have to consult with the Academic Dean to determine their course load. Students on academic probation are advised to meet with the Academic Dean for academic counseling to avoid automatic dismissal.

STUDENT RECORDS

California University – Silicon Valley recognizes and acts in full compliance with regulations set by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) (the Buckley Amendment). Students may have access to all records about them maintained by the University except for those considered confidential under the Act. Students wishing to review records or to appeal for a change in those records should contact Academic Dean. The University, at its discretion, may release certain information classified as directory information unless a student indicates that such information should not be released. Requests to withhold this information from the general public must be made in writing and submitted to the Registrar.

CUSV will maintain records of the name, address, email address, and telephone number of each enrolled student, degree or certificate granted to be directory information under FERPA and, as such, may be disclosed, without consent, to a third party upon request. Student transcripts and degree or certificate are maintained indefinitely and all other maintained for 5 years. CUSV will maintain permanent record of all of the following:

- (1) The degree or certificate granted and the date on which that degree or certificate was granted.
- (2) The courses and units on which the certificate or degree was based.
- (3) The grades earned by the student in each of those courses.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS

The confidentiality of student and patient records is protected by law. Information contained in a student or patient file may not be released to a third party without written permission of the student or patient, subject to the Family Rights and Education Act of 1974. This written permission must be a part of the file. Student interns and student employees may sometimes have access to confidential information regarding the University, its patients, suppliers, and fellow students. It is the student's responsibility to not reveal or divulge any such information unless instructed to do so by a member of the Administration. A student may be expelled for a breach of confidentiality and legal action may be taken by the University.

PROTECTION AGAINST IMPROPER DISCLOSURE

1. Information. About student's views, beliefs, and political associations which University employees acquire privately in the course of their work as instructors, advisors, and counselors shall be considered confidential. Since improper disclosure of this information could have a damaging effect to the environment of free inquiry and expression necessary to quality higher education, protection against improper disclosure of confidential information regarding students is a professional obligation of faculty members and administrative staff.

2. Student records. Records will be released only under legal compulsion or the written request of the student involved. If records are subpoenaed, the student shall receive the same information and the name of the subpoenaing agency.
3. Information from student educational records will be considered confidential in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.
4. When a student has been found responsible for a violation of University standards through Judicial Affairs, a disciplinary record (separate from the student's academic record) will be maintained in a confidential file in the Administrative Office for a minimum of seven years. If a student is suspended or expelled from the University, the file shall be kept permanently. Probation and suspension are noted on the student's academic record during the term of the probation or suspension. A permanent notation will be made on the student's academic record if he or she is expelled from the University. If a student is found not responsible, all files will be purged. Disciplinary records are considered education records under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act and as such can only be released in accordance with those regulations.

Note: All admission documents submitted by students become the property of the University. Students should monitor in a timely manner, his/her own progress toward graduation and to take all appropriate required courses each trimester.

STUDENT DISCIPLINARY POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

A. Philosophy

The Problem-Solving Team deals with student behaviors which constitute violations of this code. The Problem-Solving Team works together to suggest intervention strategies which are considered to be most appropriate and effective for eliminating specific negative student behaviors.

B. Process

Incidents that come to the attention of the Problem-Solving Team may be addressed in one of the following ways:

1. No action.
2. Informal meetings with relevant university officials.

3. Initiate proceedings in the Office of the President for Academic and Student Life.

Official proceedings in the president's office are conducted when it becomes apparent to the Problem-Solving Team that the initial and more informal forms of intervention with a student have been unsuccessful in positively modifying a student's behavior.

C. Investigation and Disposition of Complaints

The following rules will govern the processing of alleged violations of the proscribed conduct listed in the Student Conduct Code, with one exception. Allegations of discrimination, including sexual harassment, will utilize a separate process in order to provide both parties their rights under the law and in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Copies of the Discrimination Grievance Process are available in the Office of the President.

1. A complaint alleging misconduct against any student at the university may be filed by anyone at the Administrative Office. Students, faculty members, administrators, and other employees of the university shall have concurrent authority to request the commencement of the disciplinary proceedings provided for in this chapter. A person filing a complaint shall be complainant of record.

2. Any student charged in a complaint shall receive written notification from the president. Such notice shall:

- a. Inform the student that a complaint has been filed alleging that the student violated specific provisions of the Student Conduct Code and the date of the violation(s).

- b. Set forth those provisions allegedly violated.

- c. Specify a time and date the student is required to meet with the president or designee.

- d. Inform the student that failure to appear at the appointed time at the president's office may subject the student to suspension from the university.

3. When president meets with the student, the president shall:

- a. Provide for the student a copy of the Student Conduct Code.

- b. Review the alleged violation with the student.

- c. Conduct an investigation into the alleged violation.

4. Upon completion of the review with the student and/or the investigation, the president may:

- a. Drop the charges when they appear to be invalid, without substance or capricious.

- b. Issue a verbal warning.

- c. Apply any of the sanctions as outlined in Section IV if such sanction is warranted by the evidence.

- d. Refer the case to the school board.

- e. Invoke the summary suspension procedure as outlined in Section VII when deemed appropriate.

5. The president shall inform the student that only suspension and expulsion sanctions may be appealed to the Board, and that if an appeal is made, the president shall take no action nor make any determination, except for summary suspension, in the matter other than to inform the student of the time, date, and location of the proceeding by the Board

DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS

The following may be the sanctions imposed by the President for and school board.

A. Warning

Notice in writing that the student has violated university rules or regulations or has otherwise failed to meet the university's standard of conduct. Such warning will contain the statement that continuation or repetition of the specific conduct involved or other misconduct will normally result in one of the more serious disciplinary actions described below.

B. Disciplinary Probation

Formal action will specify the conditions under which a student may continue to be a student at the university, including limitation of specified activities, movement, or presence on the CUSV campus, including restricted access to any university building. The conditions specified may be in effect for a limited period or for the duration of the student's attendance at the university.

C. Restitution

An individual student may be required to make restitution for damage or loss to university or other property and for injury to persons. Failure to make restitution will result in suspension until payment is made.

D. Suspension

Dismissal from the university and from status as a student for a stated period. The notice suspending the student will state in writing the term of the suspension and any condition(s) that must be met before readmission is granted. The student so suspended must demonstrate that the conditions for readmission have been met. There is to be no refund of fees for the trimester in which the action is taken, but fees paid in advance for a subsequent quarter are to be refunded.

E. Deferred Suspension

Notice of suspension from the university with the provision that the student may remain enrolled contingent on meeting a specified condition. Not meeting the contingency shall immediately invoke the suspension for the period and under the conditions originally imposed.

F. Expulsion

The surrender of all rights and privileges of membership in the university community and exclusion from the campus without any possibility for return.

G. Forfeiture of Entitlements or Awards

For the specific instance of hazing, forfeiture of any entitlement to state-funded grants, scholarships, or awards for a specified period.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

Notices to a student required under disciplinary proceedings shall be hand-delivered or mailed by certified mail. Any student, faculty or staff member of California University – Silicon Valley may present a written allegation to the Academic Dean that a student has been engaged in prohibited conduct, as soon as possible after the incident has occurred. The student will be notified of the allegation(s) within a reasonable time thereafter. The University will investigate the facts underlying the allegation. The investigation shall allow the student to present written and/or oral explanation of the facts and circumstances underlying the alleged conduct. All physical evidence, written statements, and notes of oral statements taken in an investigation shall be kept in a case file relevant to the matter.

If the Academic Dean does not believe that conduct constituting a violation of this code has occurred, the charge shall be dismissed. A written finding of this dismissal of charges shall be placed in the case files, with copies of the results delivered to the student accused in the allegation.

FINDINGS, HEARINGS, AND APPEALS

If the Academic Dean (AD) believes there has been a violation of the Code of Conduct, she/he will conduct an appropriate investigation.

If the AD decides the outcome is a minor violation, he/she will arrange a one-on-one meeting with the student to discuss these findings. Following this meeting, the AD may decide to impose any of the following sanctions: counseling, guidance, oral reprimand and/or written reprimand.

The AD will deliver the findings, in writing, to the student. If a violation is found and a sanction proposed by the AD, the student will have ten calendar days from receipt of the written finding to appeal the finding and sanction to the Administrative team. This appeal must be in writing. Appeals are limited to: a) the showing of new evidence that was unknown at the time of the decision, b) sanction that is not supported by the evidence, or c) bias or other unfair prejudice in the decision or procedure.

A meeting of the Administrative team (the University President, the Academic Dean, the Dean of Students and the Director of Administrative Affairs) will be arranged within ten calendar days of receipt of the written appeal. Student may attend this meeting but is not obligated to attend. The student may elect to be accompanied by an advisor of their choice, if the advisor is a member of the University community and does not act as legal counsel.

The decision of the Administrative team regarding the appeal is final. The AD shall then record and file all results of both the preliminary and subsequent investigations in the student's academic records file.

More serious violations of the Code of Conduct may require a formal hearing, as determined by the Academic Dean. For the purposes of a formal hearing, the Administrative team consists of the University President, the Academic Dean, the Dean of Students and the Director of Administrative Affairs. The following procedure applies:

1. If the AD believes that a more serious sanction may be warranted, she/he will refer the case to the Administrative team for a formal hearing, and will submit all relevant documents and records. The AD will not be involved in the determination of any Administrative team sanction.
2. The student will be notified in writing of the hearing time and date, and the charges against him. The student has the right to examine the evidence against him/her prior to the hearing and to respond, in writing, to the allegations no less than ten calendar days prior to the hearing. The hearing shall be arranged by the AD. At the hearing, the Administrative team will review and consider all materials appropriately submitted by the AD and the student who has been charged. The Administrative team will deliberate and deliver their decision to the student within ten calendar days of completion of the hearing, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable given the nature and circumstances of the case.
3. Following receipt of this decision, the student will have an additional ten calendar days in which to appeal sanctioned decisions arrived at by the Administrative team. This appeal must be directed to the University President. Such appeals must be in writing and presented to the President via certified mail postmarked within ten calendar days of receipt of the committee's decision. Appeals are limited to the following circumstances: a) the showing of new evidence that was unknown at the time of the decision, b) sanction that is not supported by the evidence, or c) bias or other unfair prejudice in the decision or procedure.

POLICY AND PROCEDURES OF STUDENT COMPLAINTS AND GRIEVANCE

Introduction

Consistent with its commitment to students first, California University - Silicon Valley has adopted this policy to assist students, faculty, and staff in the resolution of student concerns and complaints and grievance constructively, quickly and fairly.

Where minor concerns arise, students are encouraged to make an appointment with the instructor or staff member who is directly involved with the concern. Usually, the concern can be resolved satisfactorily through honest and open communication with the faculty or staff member. Meeting with the instructor or staff member should be the first step in resolving the concern.

However, where informal discussions have not yielded a satisfactory resolution, or where the matter is more serious, the following policy provides for a more formal process to be pursued.

Complaints made under this policy will be monitored and reviewed to enable the university to continually improve processes and services in support of student learning.

Policy

A. Definitions

In this policy:

Complaint is an allegation by a student that there has been, in an individual case, an arbitrary or discriminatory application of, or failure to act pursuant to, the policies of California University - Silicon Valley in relation to students. The complaint should be a written statement submitted by a student about a matter that requires formal consideration and resolution by the university in the terms set out in this policy.

Fair play means the right to have a decision made by an unbiased decision maker who observes fair and impartial procedures.

B. Application and scope

1) This policy applies to student complaints about any aspect of the teaching and learning process and the broad provision made by the university to support that process.

2) This policy may not be used:

a. where the complaint can be dealt with under: The Student Government Association Constitution, the Student Conduct Policy, the Grade Appeal Process or the general work of the Student Rights Committee, the Sexual Assault Policy, and the Sexual Harassment Policy, or other general policies that provide a specific process for resolution of complaints.

b. to challenge the academic judgment of faculty.

3) No action will be taken on malicious or anonymous complaints.

4) A complainant must be able to demonstrate that the complaint is brought without malice and is based on evidence that the complainant honestly and reasonably believes to be substantially true. Those responsible for resolving complaints under this policy must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the complainant is protected against any subsequent recrimination or victimization.

5) Students and staff involved in the consideration and resolution of concerns and complaints have various rights and responsibilities, which are outlined in the appendix to the policy.

C. Informal resolution of concerns

1) Before making formal written complaints, students are encouraged to seek resolution to any concerns by raising and discussing them informally with the relevant faculty or staff member who is most directly associated with the matter. Usually, the concern can be resolved satisfactorily through honest and open communication with the faculty or staff member.

2) A staff member with whom a concern is raised by a student is expected to deal with the matter in an open and professional manner and to take reasonable and prompt action to try to resolve it informally.

3) If the concern has not been addressed satisfactorily by meeting with the faculty or staff member, the student should bring the concern to the Director of Student Affairs, S/he will often be able to resolve the concern satisfactorily.

4) A student who is uncertain about how to seek informal resolution of a concern is encouraged to seek advice from the Director of Student Affairs.

D. Formal complaint procedure

1) If after visiting with the staff or faculty member and the Director of student Affairs it has not been possible to resolve the concern informally, a student may make a formal complaint.

2) A student who wishes to make a formal complaint must submit it in writing on the prescribed form, to the Director of Student Affairs who is responsible for the action or matter that has given rise to the complaint.

3) The written complaint must be submitted within one month after the occurrence of the action or matter that has given rise to the complaint unless the Director of Student Affairs agrees to receive it beyond this time frame.

5) If a complaint involves the Director of Student Affairs, it should be directed to the President.

6) The Director of Student Affairs or the President who receives a student complaint must acknowledge it in writing within three working days. He or she must also lodge the complaint in the relevant division and must maintain a file of all documentation in relation to the consideration of the complaint.

7) The Director of Student Affairs must ensure that any staff member named in the complaint receives a copy as soon as practical.

8) The Director of Student Affairs must consider the complaint in accordance with the principles of fair play and must ensure that all parties to the complaint are accorded the full benefit of those principles.

9) The process may include meetings with relevant staff and/or the complainant. Where meetings are held, the parties may, if they wish, be accompanied by a peer support person.

E. Resolution of complaints

1) The Director of Student Affairs must decide in relation to the complaint and must communicate his or her decision to the parties, in writing, within 28 days of receiving the complaint.

2) If the complaint involves a university policy or procedure and if, in the opinion of the Director of Student Affairs, the complaint has substance, Director of Student Affairs must arrange for the relevant policy or procedure to be reviewed, with a view to preventing a recurrence and ensuring continued improvement.

3) If the resolution of the complaint involves potential disciplinary action for an employee, the Director of Student Affairs must follow the appropriate procedures outlined in the Faculty Handbook. If the Director of Student Affairs does not have authority over the employee, then they may forward a recommendation for disciplinary action to the President

F. Appeals

1) Any party to a student complaint who is dissatisfied with a decision by the Director of Student Affairs under this policy may appeal to the President for the area most directly related to the complaint.

2) The appeal must be submitted in writing within two weeks of the letter communicating the decision.

3) The President will consider the relevant documentation and may, at his or her discretion, consult the Director of Student Affairs who made the decision. The President may also interview any parties to the complaint.

4) If he or she determines that the complaint process has been conducted in accordance with this policy and the outcome is appropriate, the President may dismiss the appeal. Otherwise, he will decide the appeal in consultation with the Director of Student Affairs and any other parties. Subject to subsections (6) and (7), the decision of the President under this section is final.

5) The President will communicate his or her appeal decision in writing to the parties.

6) The President will also inform any staff members who are dissatisfied with a student complaint process.

7) If the original complaint was addressed to the President under section 4(4), any appeal must be made to the President. That appeal will be considered and decided, in accordance with appeal processes consistent with those set out in this policy, by the President or a nominee of the President.

G. Confidentiality

All students related information will be considered confidential and protected under FERPA (Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act). Records relating to employees and other records that do not include student information are not confidential.

H. Report to the Student Complaint Log

All employees who receive a complaint must submit a report to the Student Complaint Log, including an overview of the student complaint and decisions made regarding the complaint. Complaint logs are located in the Academic/Administrative Office.

Rights and Responsibilities of Parties to a Student Complaint

Parties to a student complaint have the right to

1. be treated with courtesy at all times
2. a fair and timely investigation process
3. express their points of view without fear of recrimination
4. receive full information at all stages of the complaint process
5. be advised in writing of all decisions made in relation to the complaint
6. appeal the outcome as outlined in this policy

Parties to a student complaint have a responsibility to

1. treat all parties with courtesy at all times
2. respect the points of view of others
3. respect the rights of all parties to the complaint with respect to confidentiality
4. in the case of the complainant, ensure that the complaint is made in good faith and complies with the requirements of the Student Complaint Policy
5. provide full and accurate information to the person investigating the complaint
6. not take any action that may prejudice the situation or be regarded as an act of recrimination against any other party.

If students who have complaints or feel aggrieved do not satisfied with the final decision made by the President or a nominee of the President may file a complaint about this institution to:

- 1) the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education by calling (888) 370-7589 toll free or by completing a complaint form, which is available on the bureau's internet website www.bppe.ca.gov. Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (BPPE) is at 2535 Capitol Oak

Drive Suite 400, Sacramento, CA 95833. Internet website address is www.bppe.ca.gov. Telephone: (916) 431-6959, Fax number: (916) 263-1897.

2) The Accreditation Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (ACAOM) at 8941 Aztec Drive, Eden Prairie, Minnesota 55347; phone 952/212-2434; fax 952/657-7068; www.acaom.org

Right to Appeal

The purpose of appeal procedures is to provide a system that will represent “fairness and the absence of arbitrariness.” With the intent of assuring fairness and objectivity, the University has created and implemented procedures for appeals by students. The University makes every effort to assure that the appeal procedures are clear to students and are not burdensome.

Students have the right to appeal any academic policy or requirement if either of the following conditions is present:

- Extenuating circumstances make it impossible to comply with the policy or requirement.
- An undue hardship would result from a strict application or interpretation of the policy or requirement.

Please note, however, that extenuating circumstances must be beyond student control and that undue hardship must be a condition far more serious than simple inconvenience. Documentation will be required, and the timeliness of the appeal will be taken into consideration. If you appeal an academic policy or requirement, that appeal will be reviewed by the Academic Dean.

Right to file a Complaint Policy

In case a student, the parent of a student, or any other individual has a complaint that an official of the University is violating FERPA, and the complaint cannot be satisfactorily resolved within the University, that person has the right to file a complaint with the Department of Education by contacting:

Family Policy Compliance Office U.S. Department of Education 400 Maryland Ave., S.W. Washington, D.C. 20202-5920 (202) 260-3887

For Resolution of Discrimination and Sexual Harassment Complaints

Any applicant for admission, enrolled student, applicant for employment, or employee of California University – Silicon Valley who believes she/he has been discriminated against (on the basis of such things as race, gender, disability, sexual orientation, or age) or who believes s/he is a victim of sexual harassment may lodge a formal institutional grievance according to the following procedure:

Step 1: Informal Meeting -- To informally resolve the concern, the complainant may request a meeting with the individual believed to have committed the discriminatory or sexual harassment act or with the appropriate supervisor, as determined by the University administration office. The time for informal resolution of concerns shall not exceed thirty days from the time the concern is lodged.

Step 2: Official Hearing -- If not satisfied by the results of the informal meeting or if the informal meeting has been waived, the complainant may request in writing a meeting with the Director of Student Affairs.

Academic dishonesty or acts of student conduct that violate University standards and Code of Conduct will subject the student to disciplinary action that may include dismissal from the University. However, in conformance with Due Process and prior to implementing any disciplinary action, the student is given a hearing before an impartial committee. The student is also given an opportunity to appeal any decision that is unfavorable.

- a. The request for an official hearing must be made in writing and set forth the specific grievance raised by the complainant.
- b. Within thirty calendar days of receiving the written request, the appropriate officer (identified in Step 2) shall arrange a meeting to hear the complaint. It shall be at the discretion of the complainant to determine whether the person to whom the complaint has been directed shall meet with the complainant and officer separately or in a single meeting. If the complainant requests a single meeting, the meeting shall be attended by the complainant, the person to whom the complaint is directed, and the officer, who shall chair the meeting.
- c. Following the hearing and within thirty calendar days of receiving the written request, the officer will report his/her findings in writing to both the complainant and the person to whom the complaint has been directed.

Step 3: Presidential Appeal -- If the complaint is not resolved as a result of the hearing conducted by the officer in Step 2, either the complainant or the person to whom the complaint has been directed may request an appeal to the university president.

- a. The request must be made in writing within ten days after receipt of the written result of the official hearing.
- b. Within fifteen days after receiving the request, the college president or the president's designee will conduct the presidential appeal hearing and report the findings in writing to both the complainant and the person to whom the complaint is directed.
- c. Attendance at the presidential appeal hearing shall be limited to the college president or his/her designee, the officer who conducted the formal hearing, the complainant, and the person to whom the complaint is directed, unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parties. The college president or his/her designee shall preside.

- d. Either the complainant or the person to whom the complaint is directed may call witnesses, at the direction of the person presiding.
- e. The written findings of the presidential appeal will be considered final. No further intra-institutional appeal exists.

If desired, inquiries or appeals beyond the institutional level may be directed to:

Regional Civil Rights Director
Office for Civil Rights, Region IX
U.S. Department of Education
221 Main Street, 10th Floor
San Francisco, California 94105

For Resolution of Academic Complaints

Step 1. Students with concerns about academics must first submit their concerns directly to the instructor or officer involved.

Step 2. If there is no satisfactory resolution, the complaint should then be filed in writing to the Academic Dean, who will act as mediator to resolve the grievance.

Step 3. If a satisfactory resolution cannot be obtained, then, the student may submit an additional written request citing the specific issues. Within in 1 week, the dean will convene a Grievance Committee hearing. The CUSV Grievance Committee will consist of two administrative, one faculty, and one student representative with the Dean serving as the chair. The committee will hear the matter and make a decision within 5 working days of the hearing date.

Step 4. If the Grievance Committee's decision does not produce a satisfactory resolution, a formal appeal for review can be made to the office of the President. All decisions of the President are final. If the Grievance is about the President, the student's written appeal will go to the Board of directors for consideration

Step 5. If a student is not satisfied with the outcome, the student may contact the following agency:

Any questions or problem which have not been satisfactorily answered or resolved by the University may be directed to:

FAMILY EDUCATION RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT OF 1974

Notice to Students of Privacy Rights

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 is a federal law governing access to student education records. FERPA stipulates conditions for release of information from education records and affords students the opportunity to review and seek revision of those records. In addition, the federal law states: (a) that a written institutional policy must be established; and (b) that a statement of adopted procedures covering the privacy rights of students must be made available. The law provides that the institution will maintain the confidentiality of student education records. California University – Silicon Valley (CUSV) accords all the rights provided by the law, and reserves for itself the right to use and release student education records under the conditions specified by the law.

Education records, as defined by FERPA, include admission, academic, financial aid, and placement records, and other information directly related to students, with the exception of records created by the university police for the purpose of law enforcement, student health records that are created and used solely in connection with the provision of health care, employment records that relate exclusively to individuals in their capacities as employees and alumni or other post-attendance records. FERPA regulations apply only to records held for institutional use concerning students who enroll at the university; they do not govern records of applicants who are denied admission or who choose not to attend the university. Nor do they govern records kept by a university official that are the sole possession of the maker and that are normally revealed to anyone else except a temporary substitute (e.g., temporary reminder notes).

FERPA stipulates that institutions may not disclose personally identifiable information contained in education records without a student's written consent, except under conditions specified by FERPA. Information is considered personally identifiable if it contains a student's name or the name of family members, a student's local or family address, an identification number, or descriptions or data sufficient to identify an individual.

FERPA permits access to student education records for school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the university in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or other staff position (including those in law enforcement and health care); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or an individual or organization with whom the university has contracted to serve as its agent or to provide services in support of its operations (examples include attorneys, auditors, collection agents, and the National Student Clearinghouse). Student employees, students serving on official committees, and students serving in other positions in which they assist a university employee in performing her or his official tasks are also considered school officials. A school official has a legitimate educational interest in a student education record if the official needs to review the record in order to fulfill her or his professional responsibilities or official tasks.

With certain exceptions allowed by the law and listed below, no persons outside the university shall have access to, nor will the institution disclose any information from, a student's education record without the written consent of the student. FERPA permits information to be released from education records without written consent of the student to the following officials and agencies:

- Officials of other institutions to which students are applying to enroll
- Persons or organizations providing financial aid
- Individuals and organizations charged with oversight of the university, or of federal or state programs in which the university participates
- Accrediting agencies
- Parents of any student under the age of 21, regardless of the student's dependency status, in cases where the student has violated laws or university rules governing alcohol or controlled substances
- Persons as directed by a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena, provided the university makes a reasonable attempt to notify the student in advance of compliance (unless directed by judicial authorities not to disclose the existence of an order or subpoena)
- Any person where there is an articulable and significant threat to the health or safety of a student or other individuals
- The Immigration and Naturalization Service under the terms and provisions of immigration law
- An ex parte court order obtained by the United States Attorney General (or designee not lower than an Assistant Attorney General) concerning investigations or prosecutions of any offense listed in United States Code (USC) 18-2332 or an act of domestic or international terrorism as defined in USC 18-2331.

With the exception of alcohol and drug violations CUSV does not release information from student education records to parents without the written consent of students.

FERPA permits the university to release information concerning violent crimes and non-forcible sex offenses (statutory rape or incest) committed by its students. Victims of alleged crimes of violence or non-forcible sex offense may be informed of the final results of university disciplinary hearings concerning the allegation. When a student is an alleged perpetrator of a violent crimes or a non-forcible sex offense and the university concludes with respect to that allegation that the student has violated university rules, the university may release to the public the name of the student, the offense committed, and the sanction the university imposes against the student.

At its discretion, California University – Silicon Valley (CUSV) may publish or release directory information in accordance with the provisions of FERPA. Directory information includes student name, university and permanent home address and telephone number, a photograph, dates of attendance, class, major fields of study, previous institutions attended, awards and honors (including honor roll), degrees conferred (including dates), participation in officially recognized sports and activities, and heights and weights of members of athletic teams.

By selecting the FERPA restriction to Directory Information on your student account, no information can be released regarding your student record. The FERPA restriction takes precedence over any “Release of Information” forms that you may have submitted. Therefore, if applicable, we will no longer be able to discuss your student records, including account information, with any family member that you may have previously indicated we can release information to.

With the FERPA restriction in force, you must come in person with picture identification before CUSV office can release any information. If you call a CUSV office you will not be provided any information over the phone. CUSV employees will only be able to respond, “We do not have any information available”. In addition, if you make the CUSV honor roll, your name cannot be published on the web or in your hometown newspaper.

Students wishing to review their education records should submit a written request, clearly specifying the records of interest, to the official responsible for maintaining those records. The Administration office will assist in identifying the appropriate official. The responsible official will then make arrangements for the student to inspect the records within forty-five days of the request, and will notify the student of the time and place of inspection. The Administration Office is located in 441 De Guigne Dr. Sunnyvale, CA 94085. You may contact them by phone at 408-532-5567.

Students may have copies made of their records with certain exceptions (e.g., students may not have a copy of academic records for which a financial “hold” exists, or a transcript of an original or source document produced by another institution or by a person not employed by (CUSV). Copies will be made at the student’s expense at prevailing rates, which are listed in the Administration office.

Students who believe the adjudications of their challenges were unfair, or not in keeping with the provisions of FERPA, may request the assistance of the Office of the President of California University – Silicon Valley. Students who believe their FERPA rights have been violated may also file complaints with The Family Policy Compliance Office, U. S. Department of Education, 400 Maryland Avenue S.W., Washington, DC 20202-4605 (<http://www.ed.gov/offices/OM/fpco/>)

STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND (STRF) DISCLOSURE

The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

Effective February 8, 2021, the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) assessment rate changed from zero ($0) per one thousand dollars ($1,000) of institutional charges to fifty cents ($.50) per one thousand dollars ($1,000) of institutional charges. (5, CCR Section 76120)

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.”

It is important that you keep copies of your enrollment agreement, financial aid documents, receipts, or any other information that documents the amount paid to the school. Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education, 1747 North Market Blvd., Suite 225, Sacramento, California, 95834, (916) 574-8900 or (888) 370-7589.

To be eligible for STRF, you must be a California resident or enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid or deemed to have paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The institution, a location of the institution, or an educational program offered by the institution was closed or discontinued, and you did not choose to participate in a teach-out plan approved by the Bureau or did not complete a chosen teach-out plan approved by the Bureau.
2. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution within the 120 day period before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, or were enrolled in an educational program within the 120 day period before the program was discontinued.
3. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution more than 120 days before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, in an educational program offered by the institution as to which the Bureau determined there was a significant decline in the quality or value of the program more than 120 days before closure.

4. The institution has been ordered to pay a refund by the Bureau but has failed to do so.
5. The institution has failed to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federal student loan program as required by law, or has failed to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the institution in excess of tuition and other costs.
6. You have been awarded restitution, a refund, or other monetary award by an arbitrator or court, based on a violation of this chapter by an institution or representative of an institution, but have been unable to collect the award from the institution.
7. You sought legal counsel that resulted in the cancellation of one or more of your student loans and have an invoice for services rendered and evidence of the cancellation of the student loan or loans.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, the application must be received within four (4) years from the date of the action or event that made the student eligible for recovery from STRF.

A student whose loan is revived by a loan holder or debt collector after a period of noncollection may, at any time, file a written application for recovery from STRF for the debt that would have otherwise been eligible for recovery. If it has been more than four (4) years since the action or event that made the student eligible, the student must have filed a written application for recovery within the original four (4) year period, unless the period has been extended by another act of law.

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.”

PAYMENT POLICIES

All tuition and applicable fees are due and payable as specified by the student’s payment option. There will be a late payment fee if payment is not received consistent with the terms of the student’s chosen financial option.

Students are required to clear any indebtedness to CUSV before grades or transcripts will be issued or the degree awarded. All costs of collection, court fees and reasonable attorney’s fees will be added to delinquent accounts collected through third parties.

NOTE: Failure to pay tuition and fees in accordance with the student’s chosen financing agreement can result in administrative withdrawal, no course credit, account holds, assessment of late fees, referral to collections and unfavorable credit reference. Failure to comply with terms of the chosen financial option may result in a student being defaulted to the “Cash” option. Further violation of these policies will jeopardize eligibility for deferment and re-entry into CUSV.

CASH PAYMENT OPTION

Students who have selected the Cash Payment Option, or have been defaulted to Cash Payment Option, are required to pay all tuition and fees in full when they register for courses. At CUSV, checks, credit cards and cash are all considered as “cash” for purposes of this option. Students who have not paid tuition may not be allowed to attend the course. A fee will be required of students who change the form of payment (see the fee schedule).

Students retain full responsibility for ensuring that all appropriate tuition and fees are paid in a timely manner.

EQUITABLE REFUND POLICIES

Students have a right to a full refund of all charges, less the $45 registration fee, if the student cancels the enrollment agreement on the first day of class or on the seventh day after enrollment/signing this agreement, whichever is later. The amount retained by the school will not exceed the $45 registration fee.

If a student withdraws from the program after instruction has begun, the student will receive a pro rata refund for the unused portion of the tuition and other refundable charges if the student has completed 60% or less of the instruction. The date of withdrawal is the date of cancellation and is determined as the date the student notifies the school of the decision to cancel, or the last date of attendance if the student fails to notify the school. The student will be charged for all hours attended. For example, if the Student completes 50 hours of a 100-hour course and paid $2,000 for tuition-in-full, the student would receive a refund of $1,000.

Total Hours Enrolled	Hourly Tuition Charged	Total Tuition Paid by Student	Total Hours Completed	Total Refund Due Student
100	$20.	$2,000.	50	$1,000.

CUSV will refund money collected from a third party on the student’s behalf if CUSV cancels or discontinues the course in which the student is enrolled, or if the student drops out. If any portion of the tuition was paid from the proceeds of a third party, the refund will be sent to the lender or agency that guaranteed the funds. Any remaining amount will first be used to repay any student financial aid programs from which the student received benefits, in proportion to the benefits received. Any remaining amount of money will be paid to the student. If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds. If the student defaults on a federal or state loan, both the following may occur: (1) The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.

(2) The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government financial assistance at another institution until the loan is repaid.

CANCELLATION OF REGISTRATION

A cancellation of Registration cancels all classes a student has registered for. If a Cancellation of Registration is submitted prior to the end of business hours of the day before the first week of the trimester in which the student is enrolled, a full refund of tuition, fees (other than non-refundable fees) shall be granted to the student. Students who submit a cancellation of registration after the 1st week of trimester are not eligible to receive refund of any fees, but are eligible for partial refunds of tuition up to sixty percent (60%) of the course of instruction calculated based on the date of the CUSV Front Office receives the completed withdrawal notice from the student as follows:

Student Charges:

1 st Week:	No Charge, 100% Refund
2 nd Week:	10% Charged, 90% Refund
3 rd Week:	20% Charged, 80% Refund
4 th Week:	30% Charged, 70% Refund
5 th Week:	40% Charged, 60% Refund
6 th Week:	50% Charged, 50% Refund
7 th Week:	No Refund

If any portion of the tuition was paid from the proceeds of a loan or third party, the refund shall be sent to the lender, third party or, if appropriate, to the state or federal agency that guaranteed or reinsured the loan.

DROPPING CLASSES

Students who drop an individual class or classes during the established Add/Drop period (but remain enrolled in at least one class) will be granted a one hundred percent (100%) refund for dropped classes. Students who drop individual classes after the Add/Drop period are not eligible to receive refunds of any fees, but are eligible to receive partial tuition refunds up to sixty percent (60%) of the course of instruction calculated based on the date the CUSV Front Office receives the completed withdrawal notice from the student, see refund policy.

Students who have been enrolled past the end of the sixth week of instruction within any trimester will not receive a refund and will be charged one hundred percent (100%) of the tuition and fees for that trimester.

Student Charges:

1 st Week:	No Charge, 100% Refund
2 nd Week:	10% Charged, 90% Refund
3 rd Week:	20% Charged, 80% Refund
4 th Week:	30% Charged, 70% Refund

5th Week: 40% Charged, 60% Refund
6th Week: 50% Charged, 50% Refund
7th Week No Refund

Dropping Clinic Hours

Students who drop clinic hours prior to the end of business hours of the day before the first week of the trimester will receive a full refund. Students who drop clinic hours after the Add/Drop period, but before the end of the sixth week will be charged based on same calculation based on the date of the CUSV Front Office receives the completed withdrawal notice from the student just as the didactic class drop policy. No refund of fees related to clinic internship will be given unless the student is eligible for full refund of the entire clinic hours registered. Students who drop clinic hours after the end of the sixth week will be charged for the total amount of clinic hours they initially registered for.

Student Charges:

2nd Week: 20% Charged, 80% Refund
3rd Week: 30% Charged, 70% Refund
4th Week: 40% Charged, 60% Refund
5th Week: 50% Charged, 50% Refund
6th Week: 60% Charged, 40% Refund

Students are allowed to withdraw from the Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday classes and intern's hours during the next business day, and will be counted as if student withdrew in the previous week rather than the date of withdrawal. Another option to withdraw from the weekend class is to fax student's desire to withdraw with all the pertinent information including student's signature before the end of the week. Student who withdraws with this method needs to submit the original document (not the fax) and the confirmation of fax to the front office during business hours in the following week.

THE FOLLOWING ARE EXAMPLES ONLY. ACTUAL REFUND AMOUNTS ARE SUBJECT TO TUITION CHARGES AND UNIT/HOUR REQUIREMENTS IN EFFECT AT THE TIME THE STUDENT REQUESTS A TUITION REFUND.

----Clinical Tuition Refund --

Student enrolled in 40 clinical hours, withdraws in the third week

Total Tuition charges for 960 clinical hours (960 hours X $15.00) = $ 14,400.00)

Divide total clinical tuition by number of clinical hours (14,400.00/960) = $ 15.00 [This number (the quotient) represents the hourly charge for the clinical aspect of the program.]

Amount owed by student:

Hourly charge ($15.00) X total hours in session at time withdrawal (12) = $ 180.00

Amount paid by student (40 hours X $15.00 per unit) = $ 600.00

Amount of Clinical Tuition Refund (amount paid minus amount owed - $600.00 minus $ 180.00)
= $ 420.00

This refund schedule is subject to revision, including retroactive revision during the academic year without notice and does not list information regarding didactic (classroom) instruction timeframes.

Disbursement of Tuition Refunds

All tuition refunds will be disbursed through the CUSV administration office, unless the refund recipient requests in writing that it be mailed. In such cases, the recipient must provide in writing a current mailing address or other address to which the refund should be sent.

COCUSVMER LOAN AGREEMENTS

CUSV does not loan students funds to attend school. Students may voluntarily choose a third party private lending institution to receive a loan to pay for the cost of A.C.B.S Programs. The third-party lender is responsible to provide all disclosures to students according to the truth in lending act of title 15 of the United States code.

If you get a student loan, you are responsible for repaying the loan amount plus any interest, less the amount of any refund. If a student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund, and that, if the student receives federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of the money not paid from federal financial aid funds.

FINANCIAL CHARGES GRIEVANCE

CUSV has a responsibility to protect the rights of students and ensure compliance with its nondiscrimination financial policy by providing an appeal process for those who desire to file a grievance against CUSV. All disputes relating to charges must be initiated within six (6) weeks from the charge date and must be submitted in writing to the Financial Office.

FINANCIAL DISPUTES

Student disputes or requests for policy exceptions must be submitted in writing and include all relevant. Note: All fees are subject to change. For student(s), currently enrolled or not, who has/have an outstanding balance, CUSV reserves the rights to refuse any type of service, including release of grades and documents.

FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMS

CUSV does not participate in federal and state financial aid programs.

MASTER DEGREE PROGRAM IN TRADITIONAL CHINESE MEDICINE (MTCM)

California University – Silicon Valley (CUSV) Master of Science in Traditional Chinese Medicine degree program consists of 2,145 didactic clock-hours (143 semester units) of academic course work and 960 clock-hours (32 semester credits) of clinical internship at the University's Intern Clinic totaling 3,105 clock-hours (175 semester credits).

The entire program is conducted in residence at the university's instructional facility and Intern Clinic. The program takes a minimum of 36 months to complete, may be completed in a maximum of eight calendar years, and is the equivalent of a four-year academic program. There are 45 instructional weeks per calendar year, which is divided into 3 trimesters or 135 instructional weeks in total.

Course work of California University – Silicon Valley (CUSV) Master of Science in Traditional Chinese Medicine degree program includes studies in Oriental medicine theory, acupuncture, herbology & herbal formulas, Western medicine & science, Tui Na (traditional Chinese massage therapy), and practice management & ethical practices, and clinical internship. More specifically, CUSV's academic program consists of the following:

1. be at least four (4) academic years in length
2. be a minimum of 175 semester credits of instruction, including at least:
 - (a) 1,311 Hours clock hours of instruction in Oriental medical theory, diagnosis and treatment techniques in acupuncture, and related studies including 450 clock hours of instruction in didactic Oriental herbal studies.
 - (b) 960 clock hours of instruction in integrated acupuncture and herbal clinical training, including at least 150 hours in clinical observation and 810 clock hours of instruction in clinical internship.
 - (c) 540 clock hours of instruction in biomedical clinical sciences.
 - (d) 100 clock hours of instruction in counseling, communication, ethics, and practice management.

MTCM PROGRAM OUTLINE

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

The above curriculum requirements must be satisfactorily completed in order to petition for graduation from the Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine program at California University – Silicon Valley. Total number of hours include:

143 Units, 2145 Hours didactic education

32 Units 960 Hours clinical training

Total 175 Units / 3105 Hours

Detailed Course Descriptions

Basic Sciences

BS 101 General Biology 3 units

Prerequisite: None

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of general Biology including molecular basis of life, cell, cell membrane, intracellular membrane organelles, mitochondrial, cell skeleton, cell nucleus. It also covers ribosome and protein synthesis, cell division and proliferation, cell differentiation and degeneration, genetics chromosome abnormalities, single gene disease, mitochondrial genetics, etc.

BS 102 Chemistry 3 units

Prerequisite: None

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the concept of both inorganic and organic chemistry, biochemistry, classification, structure and character of saccharides, classification, structure and character of lipids, protein and amino acids, the base, character and function of enzyme, bio-respiration and energy, vitamin, and enzyme. It also introduces the metabolism of saccharides, lipids, amino acids and protein, the structure, classification, and metabolism of nucleic acids.

BS 103 General Physics 2 units

Prerequisite: None

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of the general physical including a general survey of biophysics. It covers the knowledge of physics history, measurements, vectors and scalar revisit, velocity and acceleration in one dimension, gravity and freefalling objects, motions, energy and momentum, simple harmonic oscillation. It also consists of the instruction of biophysics such as electrical properties of cells, the Hodgkin-Huxley model of action potentials, etc.

BS 104 General Psychology 2 units

Prerequisite: None

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of general psychology including counseling skills. It covers modern approaches to psychology, the basic knowledge of psychology such as perception, learning, memory, intelligence, thought, and language, motivation and emotion, personality, stress and health, disorders, and therapies. It also covers the counseling skills such as empathy, listening skills, social and communication skills, boundary setting, and critical thinking.

BS 105 Anatomy 4 units

Prerequisite: None

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of microscopic anatomy, gross anatomy and neuroanatomy. It includes such important information as the cellular level of organization, the tissue level of organization, the integumentary system, osseous tissue and skeletal structure, the reproductive system, etc. This is a foundation to study human physiology, pathology (pathological anatomy and pathophysiology). surface markers related to acupuncture points' location are emphasized.

BS 106 Physiology 4 units

Prerequisite: BS 105

Course Description/ Educational Objectives of the Course

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of basic physiology including neurophysiology, endocrinology, and neurochemistry. It introduces the essential concepts of physiology and mechanisms of body function at various levels of organization, ranging from cellular and molecular to tissue and organ system levels. Emphasis is placed on understanding the integrated regulation of various body processes among the major systems (nervous, endocrine, cardiovascular, respiratory, gastrointestinal, urinary, reproductive system).

BS 107 Pathology & Pathophysiology 4 units

Prerequisite: None

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of the nature of disease and illness, including microbiology, immunology, psychopathology, and epidemiology. It introduces the knowledge of cell and tissue function, cell injury and cellular adaptations, structure of immune system, epidemiology and prevention, biological bases of psychopathology, psychological assessment, and clinical judgment.

BS 108 Nutrition and Vitamins 2 units

Prerequisite: None

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of principles of nutrition, vitamins, and their relationship to health. Major principles, functions and sources of nutrients and disease prevention are discussed. Procedures for patient consultation in commonly seen diseases, nutrition, dietary supplement, and prescription counseling are also included.

Acupuncture & MoxibustionAC 101 Acupuncture I 3 units

Prerequisite: None

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of the acupuncture principles and theory. It covers a brief history of acupuncture and Moxibustion, the knowledge of Yin-Yang, the Five Elements, the Zhang-Fu organs, Qi, blood and body fluid, the basic concepts of channels, collaterals, and acupuncture points. This course also covers the standards of the WHO.

AC 102 Acupuncture II 3 units

Prerequisite: AC 101

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of the acupuncture principles and theory. It covers the knowledge of the first eight of the twelve primary acupuncture meridians. The channels covered will include the lung, large intestine, stomach, spleen, heart, small intestine, urinary bladder, and kidney.

AC 103 Acupuncture III 3 units

Prerequisite: AC 102

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of the theory of channel systems covering the pericardium, triple energizer, gallbladder, and liver. This course will also include the governor vessels and the conception vessels, 40 extra points and the twelve Primary Channels and introduce its association to governor vessels and the conception vessels.

AC 104 Acupuncture IV 3 units

Prerequisite: AC 103

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of acupuncture techniques, aetiology and pathogenesis, diagnostic methods, differentiation of syndromes, acupuncture treatment, and CNT related requirements and regulations.

AC 105 Acupuncture V 3 units

Prerequisite: AC 104

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of the categories of acupuncture points and their applications, surgical techniques, magnet and beats therapy, microsystems acupuncture, electro-stimulation, cold and heat therapy, including moxibustion, cupping, Gua Sha-Scraping technique, and ultrasound therapy. It also introduces adjunctive acupuncture procedures, including bleeding, cupping, dermal tacks, acupuncture micro therapies, including auricular and scalp therapy.

AC 106 Acupuncture VI 3 units

Prerequisite: AC 105

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the principles of acupuncture prescription development and treatment from Nei Jing to modern acupuncture and Oriental medicine literature. The course includes a detailed study of clinical acupuncture treatment procedures for different specialties including, but not limited to the treatment of internal diseases, external diseases, gynecological diseases, pediatric diseases, psychological diseases, diseases of eyes, ears, nose and throat, and the knowledge of emergency care, family medicine.

AC 107 Holographic Acupuncture Techniques 2 units

Prerequisite: AC 106

The educational objectives of this course are to teach students the philosophy of hologram, and how to apply the concept to clinical practice. The course focuses on holographic acupuncture techniques to treat commonly encountered diseases, such as acute bronchitis, edema of the lower limbs, palpitation, hemorrhoids, insomnia, hypertension, etc.

Oriental Medicine Principles, Theories and TreatmentOM 101 Foundation of TCM I 3 units

Prerequisite: None

This is one of the series of two courses of the Foundation of TCM. The Purpose of these two courses is to teach students the knowledge of Oriental medicine principles and theory. It includes TCM fundamental concept: Yin/Yang, five elements, organ theory. It covers the instruction of the vital substances, the concept and transformation of Qi, the functions of the Yin organs and the Yang organs, the causes of diseases, pathogenesis, prevention, and therapeutic principles. This course focuses on Yin-Yang and the five elements, Viscera and their manifestations, Qi, blood and body fluid, the meridians, and collaterals.

OM 102 Foundation of TCM II 3 units

Prerequisite: OM 101

This course is a continuation of OM 101 Foundation of TCM. The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of causes of disease, pathogenesis, prevention, and therapeutic principles based on the theories of traditional Chinese medicine.

OM 103 TCM Diagnosis I 3 units

Prerequisite: OM 102

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of acupuncture and Oriental medicine diagnosis. It mainly covers the examination methods, pattern identification comprehensive application of pattern identification methods, outlining of diagnostic principles of clinical departments. This course introduces integrated acupuncture and Oriental medicine diagnostic and treatment procedures, comprehensive history taking as well.

OM 104 TCM Diagnosis II 3 units

Prerequisite: OM 103

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the knowledge of acupuncture and Oriental medicine diagnosis. It mainly covers the knowledge of diagnosis of commonly seen clinical symptoms such as fever, abnormal sweating, headache, cough, panting, chest pain, heart palpitation, insomnia, spirit-mind abnormalities, bleeding thirst, torpid intake, etc. It also includes Clinical impressions and the formation of a working diagnosis, including acupuncture and Oriental medicine diagnoses, and the World Health Organization's international classification of diseases (ICD-9)

OM 105 TCM Internal Medicine I 3 units

Prerequisite: OM 104

This is the first of two courses in Chinese Internal Medicine. The educational objectives of the course are to teach the students the knowledge of the etiology, pathology, differentiation, and treatment of specific syndromes of the internal organ systems. Students will learn to identify specific patterns and symptoms associated with the pathologies, along with the treatment protocols and recommendations for treatment utilizing acupuncture, herbal medicine, and other TCM modalities. Chinese Internal Medicine I covers such topics concerned syndrome patterns of the lung, heart, the spleen and the stomach, and the liver and gallbladder.

OM 106 Internal Medicine II 3 units

Prerequisite: OM 104

This is the second of two courses in Chinese Internal Medicine. The educational objectives of the course are to teach the students the knowledge of identifying specific patterns and symptoms associated with the pathologies, along with the treatment protocols and recommendations for treatment utilizing acupuncture, herbal medicine, and other TCM modalities. Chinese Internal Medicine II covers such topics concerned the syndrome patterns of the kidney, general diseases and acropathy, syndrome patterns of Qi, blood and body fluid, and other diseases. It also introduces the knowledge of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine Specialties, including geriatrics, family medicine, and emergency care.

OM 100 TCM External Medicine 2 units

Prerequisite: OM 104

The educational objectives of this course are to teach the students the basic theories, knowledge and the treatment for TCM surgery. It includes the etiology and pathology, differentiation, treatment, and rehabilitation and nursing principles of TCM surgical diseases. It also includes many different kinds of surgical diseases such as sore and ulcer, breast diseases, goiter, tumor and rock, dermatologic diseases, sexually transmitted diseases, anorectal diseases, urinary male reproductive system diseases, peripheral vascular diseases, and other surgical diseases.

OM 108 TCM Pediatrics 2 units

Prerequisite: OM 104

This is a clinic course in the study of Traditional Chinese Medical diagnosis methods and treatment strategies for children's diseases. This course presents concepts in the compatibility of physiology and pathology in children and its clinical application and provides students with the understanding of the special considerations needed for the diagnosis and treatment of children's diseases.

OM 109 TCM Gynecology 2 units

Prerequisite: OM 104

The educational objectives of this course are to teach the students the knowledge of the diagnosis and treatment of abnormal menstruation, pregnancy complications, sterility, fibroid tumors and vaginal discharge, and presents case studies for discussion. Chinese medical gynecology is introduced. The menstrual cycle is described in order to optimize treatment based on differentiation of the phases of ovulation and menstruation. Disorders of the female reproductive system are described as well as Chinese medical treatment. Assessment and therapeutics are described in terms of qi, blood and body fluids, extraordinary channels, as well as Zang Fu organ differentiation. Pathologies are differentiated in terms of etiology, pattern of disharmony, treatment principle and acupuncture and herbal treatment.

OM 110 TCM Traumatology 2 units

Prerequisite: OM 104

The educational objectives of this course are to teach the students the knowledge of the basic content of traumatology including the etiology, pathology, diagnosis, and treatment of orthopedic and traumatological diseases. The teaching will focus on the commonly encountered diseases in clinical practice of orthopedics and traumatology such as fracture, dislocation, injury of muscle and tendon, internal traumatic syndrome, and osteopathy.

OM 111 Clinical Psychology 1 unit

Prerequisite: BS 104

This course introduces the knowledge of foundations of clinical psychology, clinical assessment, and clinical interventions. It also covers the knowledge of patient/practitioner rapport, communication skills, multicultural sensitivity, lifestyle counseling, and self-care recommendations.

OM 112 Tui Na I 2 units

Prerequisite: BS 105

The Purpose of the course is to teach students the knowledge of Oriental Tui Na principles and theory, acupressure and other techniques utilizing manual therapy and mechanical devices. It includes the practice of basic Acupressure and Tui Na in treating commonly diseases.

OM 113 Medical Qigong I 2 units

Prerequisite: None

This course introduces the rudimentary knowledge and experience with the health and longevity promoting exercises of, Qi Gong and Breathing. This course is designed for practical knowledge and experience of such exercises to promote the health and balance, increase awareness and concentration, and counsel and instruct patients in terms of exercise, biomechanical alignment, and health.

OM 114 Tai Chi 3 units

Prerequisite: None

This course introduces the rudimentary knowledge and experience with the health and longevity promoting exercises of Tai Chi Chuan, Qi Gong and Breathing. It covers the practical knowledge and experience of such exercises to promote the health and balance of the student/practitioner, increase awareness and concentration, integrate OM principles with kinetic movement, and counsel and instruct patients in terms of exercise, biomechanical alignment, and health. Western anatomical biomechanics, kinesiology, injury prevention and rehabilitation instructions are also included.

OM 115 TCM Classics 2 units

Prerequisite: None

This course introduces how to approach the TCM classics. It discusses selections from Nei Jing, Shang Han, Jin Gui, and Wen Bing. The instructor will briefly introduce the historical and philosophical background of the text. The focus will be placed on reading and interpreting key passages of the TCM classics text and on how these ancient concepts are applied in the modern medical setting.

OM 116 TCM Ophthalmology & Otorhinolaryngology 2 units

Prerequisite: OM 104

This is a clinic course in the study of Traditional Chinese Medical diagnosis methods and treatment strategies for ophthalmology & otorhinolaryngology. The ophthalmology part introduces the relationship between the eyes and the viscera, treatments to specific eye diseases such as eyelid disorders, diseases of canthi, etc. The otorhinolaryngology part introduces the basic theories of TCM otorhinolaryngology and the therapeutic methods of the commonly seen diseases of the ear, nose and throat.

OM 117 TCM Modern Literature 1 units

Prerequisite: None

The educational objectives of this course are to teach students the knowledge of TCM modern literature. It focuses on modern acupuncture literature, and modern oriental medicine literature. This course involves the combination of TCM with modern scientific system, and the current research trends in Oriental medicine.

OM 118 TCM Terminology 1 units

Prerequisite: OM 101, OM 102

The educational objectives of this course are designed for students who already have a basic knowledge of Traditional Chinese medicine. In this course, students will learn terminology of Traditional Chinese medicine, including words, phrases, compound terms, and definitions. After taking this course, students will be able to demonstrate the use of the pinyin system of romanization in writing and spelling commonly used TCM terminology such as acupuncture point names, Chinese herbal names, diagnostic vocabulary, and treatment vocabulary; demonstrate the reading and communication of basic TCM terminology; demonstrate the ability to recognize, write and understand the meaning of commonly used TCM terminology; and demonstrate the ability to use a Chinese-English dictionary to find basic TCM terminology.

Herbology & Formulas

HM 100 Introduction to Herbology 1 unit

Prerequisite: None

This course consists of general concept of relevant botany concepts such as the morphology and physiology of plants, nomenclature of Chinese herbs, classification of Chinese herbs, the characteristics of Chinese herbal medicine, the clinical application of Chinese herbal medicine, and the concurrent use of herbal medicine and pharmaceuticals. It covers the herbal prescription, counseling and preparation as well.

HM 102 TCM Herbology I 3 units

Prerequisite: HM 101

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the basic knowledge of Chinese herbal medicine principles and theory, especially the characters and functions of the most commonly used herbs, and their actions and indications, commentary, mechanisms of selected combinations, traditional contraindications, toxicity, nomenclature and preparation. This course shall also include some kinds of substances that release the exterior, clear heat, drain dampness, dispel wind-dampness, and herbs that transform phlegm and stop coughing.

HM 103 TCM Herbology II 3 units

Prerequisite: HM 101

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the basic knowledge of Chinese herbal medicine principles and theory, especially the characters and functions of the most commonly used herbs, and their actions and indications, commentary, mechanisms of selected combinations, traditional contraindications, toxicity, nomenclature and preparation. This course shall include aromatic herbs that transform dampness, herbs that relieve food stagnation, herbs that regulate the Qi, herbs that regulate the blood, herbs that warm the interior and expel cold, and tonifying herbs.

HM 104 TCM Herbology III 3 units

Prerequisite: HM 101

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students the basic knowledge of Chinese herbal medicine principles and theory, especially the characters and functions of the most commonly used herbs, and their actions and indications, commentary, mechanisms of selected combinations, traditional contraindications, toxicity, nomenclature and preparation. This course shall include herbs that tonify the Yang, herbs that tonify the Yin, herbs that stabilize and bind, substances that calm the spirit, aromatic substances that open the orifices, substances that extinguish wind and stop tremors, herbs that expel parasites, substances for topical application and obsolete substances.

HM 105 TCM Herbology IV 3 units

Prerequisite: HM 101

The educational objectives of the course are to teach students to have in-depth understanding of how each individual herb functions within Chinese herbal formulas. The course include introduction of such knowledge of classification of herbs, clinical applications of herbal medicine, and herb monographs. Chinese therapeutic actions, dosage, cautions/contraindications, chemical composition, pharmacological effects, clinical studies and research are introduced to the most commonly used herbs.

HM 106 TCM Formulas I 3 units

Prerequisite: HM 105

The educational objectives of Herbal Formula I II & III are to teach the students the knowledge of Chinese herbal formulas, herbal prescription, counseling and preparation for various clinical applications. This course will discuss the formulas used for releasing the exterior, clearing heat, draining down, harmonizing, treating dryness, expelling dampness, as well as warming interior cold.

HM 107 TCM Formulas II 3 units

Prerequisite: HM 105

The educational objectives of TCM Herbal Formula I & II are to teach the students the knowledge of Chinese herbal formulas, herbal prescription, counseling and preparation for various clinical applications. This course will discuss the formulas used for tonifying, regulating the Qi, invigorating the blood, stopping bleeding, stabilizing and binding, tranquilizing, orifice opening, wind expelling, phlegm treating, digesting as well as parasites expelling. It will also include herbal prescription and preparation.

HM 108 TCM Formulas III (Shang Han Lun) 3 units

Prerequisite: HM 105

The educational objectives of this course are to teach the students the knowledge of classic theories of infectious diseases caused by exogenous wind and cold factors. It includes the etiology, clinical manifestations, pulse and tongue signs and complications at different stages of each infectious disease. This course also covers basic therapeutic herbal formulas applicable to different diagnoses of syndrome and different stages of disease progression.

HM 109 TCM Formulas IV (Jingui Yaolue) 3 units

Prerequisite: HM 105

The educational objectives of this course are to teach the students the knowledge of the main critical concepts and herbal prescriptions of the major diseases in Jingui Yaolue as they apply to clinical use. It covers the different diseases in internal medicine, ferial diseases and gynecology that was mentioned in this book, and how to diagnose and treat many cases clinicians encounter daily as well.

HM 110 TCM Formulas V (Wen Bing) 3 units

Prerequisite: HM 105

The educational objectives of this course are to teach the students the knowledge of different infectious syndromes caused by exogenous heat or warm factors. It focuses on how to diagnose, set treatment principles, and select the correct herbal formulas.

HM 112 Clinical Nutrition 3 units

Prerequisite: HM 105

The educational objectives of this course are to teach students the knowledge of herbal prescription, herbal counseling and herbal preparation. It also covers the knowledge of Oriental and Western clinical and medical nutrition, dietary and supplement prescription and counseling. It introduces nutrition foundations and principles, and nutrition assessment as well.

Western Medicine

WM 101 Medical Terminology 2 units

Prerequisite: None

The educational objectives of this course are to teach students the foundation for the understanding of medical terms. It is designed to present the basic root language foundation that underlines the construction of medical scientific words and their meaning. It includes Western medical terms used for various diseases, surgical procedures, medical procedures and body parts. Such terminology is technically exact vocabulary used by professionals consisting of Greek and Latin roots, combined forms, prefixes, and suffixes. The course also includes Western medical abbreviations, and the formation of singular and plurals. It will prepare the students for further understanding of necessary information present in the Acupuncture and OM curriculum. A good understanding of medical words will serve as a foundation for their use in medical and OM clinical practice.

WM 102 Western Pharmacology 3 units

Prerequisite: None

The educational objectives of this course are to teach students the basic concepts and pharmacological principles of western pharmaceuticals and their major categories. Topics include pharmacological distribution, metabolism, and excretion, and the mechanisms by which drugs produce their therapeutic effects. Course emphasis is on general principles that can be applied broadly to groups or categories of medications. Students learn the knowledge of pharmacological assessment, emphasizing side-effects and herb-drug interactions.

WM 103 Physical Examination & Lab 3 units

Prerequisite: BS 106, BS 105, BS 107, WM 101

The educational objectives of this course are to teach students the techniques of history-taking and physical assessment according to the western clinical paradigm. This course covers the review of Clinical Sciences including internal medicine, pharmacology, neurology, surgery, obstetrics/gyneecology, urology, radiology, nutrition and public health, comprehensive history taking. It covers the complete physical examinations of the skin, head, sense organs, chest, abdomen, as well as basic orthopedic and neurological tests. It also includes the knowledge of diagnostic imaging, radiological, and laboratory tests and incorporating the resulting data and reports.

WM 104 Western Medical Sciences I 3 units

Prerequisite: BS 106, BS 105, BS 107, WM 101

The educational objectives of this course and WM 104 Western Clinical Medicine II are to present an overview of selected common diseases observed and treated in biomedicine. The etiology, pathogenesis, differential diagnosis and first line of allopathic treatment will be presented and discussed with the emphasis on the clinical manifestations of the diseases. These two courses include a survey of various clinical practices of medicine that include osteopathy, dentistry, psychology, nursing, chiropractic, podiatry, naturopathy, and homeopathy to familiarize practitioners with the practices of other health care providers. This course focuses on nutritional disorders, gastrointestinal disorders, hepatic & biliary disorders, musculoskeletal & connective tissue disorders, ear, nose, throat & dental disorders, eye disorders, dermatologic disorders, endocrine & metabolic disorders, hematology & oncology, immunology and allergic disorders etc.

WM 105 Western Medical Sciences II 3 units

Prerequisite: WM 104

The educational objectives of this course and WM 104 Western Clinical Medicine I are to present an overview of selected common diseases observed and treated in biomedicine. The etiology, pathogenesis, differential diagnosis and first line of allopathic treatment will be presented and discussed with the emphasis on the clinical manifestations of the diseases. These two courses include a survey of various clinical practices of medicine that include osteopathy, dentistry, psychology, nursing, chiropractic, podiatry, naturopathy, and homeopathy to familiarize practitioners with the practices of other health care providers. This course focuses on infectious diseases, psychiatric disorders, neurologic disorders, pulmonary disorders, cardiovascular disorders, genitourinary disorders, gynecology & obstetrics, pediatrics, geriatrics, podiatry, dentistry, nursing, naturopathy, homeopathy, etc.

Case Management

CM 101 Case Management I 3 units

Prerequisite: OM 101, OM 102, OM 103, OM 104

The educational objectives of this course are to teach students the following subjects: the primary care responsibilities, secondary and specialty care responsibilities, psychosocial assessment, treatment contraindications and complications, including drug and herb interactions, treatment planning, continuity of care, referral, and collaboration, follow-up care, final review, and functional outcome measurements.

CM 102 Case Management II 3 units

Prerequisite: OM 101, OM 102, OM 103, OM 104

The educational objectives of this course are to teach students the coding procedures for current procedural codes, including CPT and ICD-10 diagnoses, medical-legal writing, expert medical testimony, and independent medical review, special care to seriously ill patients, emergency procedures, emergency procedures, prognosis and future medical care. It also introduces integrated case management of some commonly seen diseases

Practice Management

PM 101 Practice Management 2 units

Prerequisite: None

Clinical Practice

CP 101 Practice Observation 5 units/150 hours

Prerequisite:

60 units of specific didactic learning are required. The pre-clinic comprehensive exam is required to pass with 70% correct answers. The following courses must be completed prior to the start of practice observation unless otherwise approved by the Academic Dean and Internship Clinic Director.

OM 101, OM 102, BS 102, BS 106, HM 102, AC101, PM 101, OM 103, PM 103, PM 104, PH 101

This course covers supervised observation of the clinical practice of acupuncture and Oriental medicine with case presentations and discussion. It focuses mainly on general professionalism, patient and practitioner communication and safety, time management, and intake skills. Interns should identify herbs and fill herbal prescriptions, know how to take patient history & vital signs.

CP 102 Diagnosis and Evaluation 10 units/300 hours

Prerequisite:

100 units of specific didactic learning and 150 hours of phase I practice observation must be completed prior to applying for this course. The following courses must be completed prior to the start of practice observation unless otherwise approved by the Academic Dean and Internship Clinic Director.

HM 102, AC 102, AC 103, BS 107, OM 104, WM 102, BS 106, BS 105, BS 101, BS 109

This course covers the application of Eastern and Western diagnostic procedures in evaluating patients with the direct supervision of the clinic supervisors. In this course, the supervisor shall be physically present at all times during the diagnosis and treatment of the patient, guiding and teaching the interns the correct and most appropriate way of diagnosis and treatment. The supervisor shall teach interns through case analysis and demonstration. They will continue helping interns to develop efficiency while maintaining a high level of professionalism and safety. Interns are expected to complete patient intakes in a more efficient manner, and take initiative in creating a diagnosis and determining possible treatment protocols for the case. The intern should have a comprehensive understanding of eight principals, basic and advanced Zang Fu diagnostic methods, as well as the six exogenous factors, seven emotional factors, and clear differentiation of syndromes according to the theory of Wei, Qi, Ying, and Xue, point combinations and functions, patent herbal formulas, and the basic pathophysiology of the patient's condition. The intern continues to advance in didactic classes and clinical experience, applying accumulated knowledge to already existing skill set. Supervisor guidance is focused on ensuring a comprehensive understanding of diagnostic methods, point prescriptions, herbal formulas, and needle techniques.

CP 103 Supervised Practice 17 units/510 hours

Prerequisite:

150 units of specific didactic learning and 150 hours of Phase I Practice Observation, and 300 hours of phase II Diagnosis and Evaluation must be completed prior to applying for this course. The following didactic courses must have been completed prior to the start of practice observation unless otherwise approved by the Academic Dean and Internship Clinic Director.:

WM 104, AC 104, AC 105, BS 108, HM 101, HM 102 HM 103, HM 104, HM 106, HM 107

This course covers the clinical treatment of patients with acupuncture and oriental medicine treatment modalities listed in the Business and Professions Code section. In this course, interns begin to assume the role of a quasi-independent healthcare provider while still under supervision of a licensed practitioner, and maintain a high level of professionalism and safety, and require little to no prompting or guidance from supervisors. Integrating and refining advanced skills from didactic classes and clinical experience should be the focus. Intakes should be efficient, thorough, concise, and well-documented. Supervisors should feel confident in the intern's ability to diagnose and treat a patient using a variety of modalities including but not limited to acupuncture, herbal medicine, orthopedic examinations, cupping, moxabustion, and e-stim. Interns should display a comprehensive understanding of the eight principals, Zang Fu patterns, the six exogenous factors, seven emotional factors, and differentiation of syndromes according to the theory of Wei, Qi, Ying, and Xue, point combinations and functions, patent herbal formulas and formula writing, pathophysiology, and internal medicine. Emphasis of learning should be on advanced needling skills, formula writing, and refining previously learned skills.

Elective Courses

EL 101 Spinal Diagnosis

Prerequisite: BS 105, OM 101, OM 102

This course teaches the students how to grasp the skills of making diagnosis through touching spine with fingers to find the root cause of diseases so that they can treat the disease fundamentally and efficiently.

EL 103 Tui Na II 2 units

Prerequisite: OM 112

LICENSURE OPPORTUNITIES

Students wishing to practice acupuncture in California must first obtain a state license, which requires qualifying for and passing California's written examination. In order to qualify for California's examination, students must successfully complete one of the following:

- An educational and training program approved by the Board,
- A tutorial program in the practice of acupuncture approved by the Board,
- A foreign education training program that is equivalent to the curriculum required at a CAB approved school.

LICENSURE ELIGIBILITY

The Master's degree program in Traditional Chinese Medicine (MTCM program) of California University – Silicon Valley is approved by the California Acupuncture Board. MTCM program leads to the qualification to sit in California Acupuncture Licensing Examination and NCCAOM Certification Examination, and the career opportunities available in the field.

QUALIFIED TO SIT FOR CALIFORNIA ACUPUNCTURE LICENSING EXAMINATION (CALE)

Upon the successful completion of the MTCM program, students will have met the California Acupuncture Board minimum licensing requirements and will be eligible to sit for the California Acupuncture Licensing examination given by the California Acupuncture Board. California Acupuncturists are licensed under the State Department of Consumer Affairs, Medical Board of California, and Acupuncture Board at 1747 N. Market Blvd, Suite 180; Sacramento, CA 95834. Phone: 916-515-5200; Fax: 916-928-2204. website: <https://www.acupuncture.ca.gov/>. Initial Licensing Application is provided upon passing the California Acupuncture Licensing Exam (CALE). Please contact the Board directly at AcuExamUnit@dca.ca.gov or call (916) 515-5200.

QUALIFIED TO SIT FOR NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR THE CERTIFICATION OF ACUPUNCTURE AND ORIENTAL MEDICINE CERTIFICATION EXAMINATIONS (NCCAOM)

Upon the successful completion of the MTCM program, students will also be qualified to sit for the National Commission for the Certification of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM) certification examinations. Passage of the NCCAOM exam or NCCAOM certification is required in all states outside of California that require a license to practice acupuncture.

The eligibility for NCCAOM certification is determined by Eligibility Route:

Route 1 – Formal Education: United States Applicant

Route 2 – Formal Education: International Applicant

Route 3 – Apprenticeship Applicant

Route 4 – Combination of Formal Education & Apprenticeship Applicant

Route 5 – Converting to an NCCAOM Oriental Medicine Certification Applicant

Route 6 – Reinstatement to Active NCCAOM Status Applicant

For information concerning the national licensing exam and licensure in other states contact NCCAOM, 76 South Laura Street, Suite 1290, Jacksonville, FL 32202; phone: (904) 598-1005; fax: (904) 598-5001; website: www.nccaom.org.

EMPLOYMENT, CAREER OPPORTUNITIES FOR GRADUATES

Licensed acupuncturists are trained to provide a broad range of healthcare services, including internal, as well as addiction treatment, pain management and rehabilitation assistance. They may work in private practices, multidisciplinary clinic settings or hospitals. Other career options include teaching, research and writing.

Unlike conventional Western medical practice, acupuncturists are trained to treat the entire individual rather than the specific illness or condition. They take into account a patient's physical, mental and emotional condition in order to determine the proper course of treatment. In addition to providing acupuncture therapy, practitioners help their patients achieve balance and wellness in their everyday lives.

Career Requirements

Degree Level	Master's degrees or post-baccalaureate certificates from schools accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine; some states require acupuncturists to be physicians, osteopaths, or chiropractors
Degree Field(s)	Acupuncture
Licensure/Certification	Most states have licensing requirements

Job Outlook (2018-2028)*	11% or higher growth
Mean Annual Salary (2019)*	$75,640

Acupuncture regulations vary state by state, according to the National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM) (www.nccaom.org). Most states have licensing or continuing education requirements, including certification by the National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

PROGRAM LENGTH, CREDITS AND HOURS

CUSV Master’s program in Traditional Chinese medicine is composed of 2145 didactic clock-hours and 960 clinical clock-hours, totaling 3105 clock-hours in length, equaling 175 semester credits. The entire program is conducted in residence at the university’s instructional facility and Intern Clinic. The program takes a minimum of 4 academic years to complete, may be completed in a maximum of 8 academic years. An academic year is defined as at least 30 instructional weeks. There are 45 instructional weeks per calendar year, which is divided into 3 trimesters or 135 instructional weeks in total.

UNIT / CLOCK HOUR CONVERSION

One unit is equivalent to one hour of didactic instruction per week for a 15-week term (15 hours per unit). Students will receive one-unit credit for each 30 hours of clinical instruction; and for 45 hours of independent study or externship.

The accelerated academic program is presented over a total of 9 consecutive terms, consisting of three 15-week trimesters each calendar year. All credits earned are awarded in terms of trimester units.

FULL-TIME AND PART-TIME STUDENTS

To be considered as a full-time student, a student must enroll for a minimum of 9 units per trimester. A student may not enroll in more than 21 units in any trimester without the prior approval of the academic dean. Students who enroll in 6 to 8 units per trimester are considered as part-time students. All students must complete the program in no more than eight years.

REGISTRATION

Registration for each trimester starts two weeks prior to the end of each preceding trimester. The dates and times of registration will be posted throughout the university on bulletin boards and in the Office of Admissions. A late fee of $25 is charged when students who do not register by the posted registration deadline. Registration of new and continuing students will be by appointment.

All students who wish to register must complete the registration form available from the Office of Admissions.

ADDING OR DROPPING A COURSE

Students may add or drop courses during the first two weeks of each trimester until the business day on the following Sunday of the second week without incurring additional fees. When adding or dropping courses, students must fill out an Add/Drop Form (available in the Office of Admissions) and submit the completed form to the Registrar for processing.

After the “add/drop” period, classes that are dropped are considered withdrawals and will be recorded in the student’s transcript as a grade of “W.” Tuition will be charged according to the refund schedule. For example, classes dropped in the second week of the trimester are subject to tuition in the amount of 20% of total tuition for each class for the entire trimester. Tuition is refunded pro rata based on the number of weeks of class completed in the trimester. Classes dropped from the seventh week through the end of the trimester will be recorded as “WF” (Withdraw/Fail). All add and drops can be done electronically at CUSV. Although not a prerequisite for adding and dropping courses, students are encouraged to consult with the academic officer prior to adding or dropping classes to ensure satisfactory academic progress, course and graduation scheduling, etc.

CHALLENGE EXAMINATIONS

Students may obtain credit for requisite course work that has been previously completed at an institution other than CUSV, by passing the relevant Challenge Examination for each challenged course, with the approval of the Academic Dean and/or academic officer. Challenge Examinations are subject to the following restrictions:

1. The student must take a separate examination for each course challenged.
2. The student must score 70% or better to pass.
3. All challenge examinations must be taken by the end of the second trimester of enrollment.
4. All challenge examinations are subject to a charge of 50% of current tuition for that course.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are encouraged to attend all scheduled class sessions in order to achieve the best learning outcomes. Most class sessions last for three hours, once a week for 15 weeks, with a final examination during the 15th week of each trimester. Instructors are required to take accurate attendance for each class, and those students who miss more than three class sessions, or 20% of the lectures, will receive an F (fail) for the course. Students who are no more than 15 minutes late for the start of class will be considered tardy, three tardiness in any given class will be recorded as an absence in that class.

ABSENCES AND TARDINESS

It is the policy of the University to automatically give any student who has missed more than three class sessions a grade of "F" for that particular class. Three marks of tardiness will count as one absence and result in a grade of "F".

Attendance is mandatory in the clinical internship. Students with excused absences may be allowed to perform make-up hours at the discretion of the Clinic Director. All student interns must verify attendance through daily timecards. Any intentional misrepresentation of clinic hours performed by an intern may subject the intern to disciplinary sanctions including but not limited to disqualification and ineligibility from receiving current or future scholarship awards.

Absences are considered excused under the following circumstances: illness, death or birth in the immediate family, and other valid reasons substantiated in writing, and approved by the Academic Dean. There are no exceptions for this policy. Students are strongly required to attend all classes unless they have good reason to be absent. Roll is taken at the start of each class hour. Students are responsible for the consequences of any absences, whether excused or unexcused, and are therefore responsible to make up any work missed. Students are solely responsible for the required documentation of any excused absences.

Tardiness disrupts any learning environment and is strongly discouraged. Tardiness is defined as being up to 15 minutes late for the beginning of any class hour or leaving class 15 minutes early. Three incidents of tardiness without legitimate reason for the same class will be considered an unexcused absence.

UNSATISFACTORY ATTENDANCE

Students missing 20% of class hours in any class will have their course grade lowered by one letter. No student who has missed more than 20% of the scheduled classes will be allowed to take the final exam. Unsatisfactory attendance may lead to written notification of academic probation.

MAKE-UP WORK

Make-up work may be required for any absence; however, hours of make-up work cannot be accepted as hours of class attendance. It is the student's responsibility to obtain make-up work assignments from their appropriate instructor.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Students intending to take a leave of absence must complete and submit to the Registrar a Leave of Absence request form. This form includes the anticipated day the leave will start and the expected date of return. Students returning from extended leaves of absence may be subject to readmission requirements. International students must coordinate with the International Student Advisor to make sure they maintain their status.

REQUESTING A LEAVE OF ABSENCE, RULES AND FORM

In accordance with both established University Regulations and Federal Title IV Student Financial Aid requirements, a student may request a leave of absence for the following reasons and lengths of time. A student who requests a Leave of Absence from the University and wishes to maintain his/her enrollment status may do so under the following conditions:

1. File a request for a Leave of Absence. The student must sign and date the form prior to the leave of absence, unless unforeseen circumstances prevent the student from doing so. In such a case, the student is still obligated to communicate with the Academic Dean to provide the requisite information regarding the Leave of Absence.
2. Receive approval for the leave of Absence request by the Registrar or by the International Student Advisor (if F-1 visa student).

READMISSION OF MILITARY PERSONNEL AND VETERANS

A student who has to take a Leave of Absence because of active duty service for more than 30 days is entitled to readmission, with the same academic status, if all of the following criteria exist:

- Advance notice is provided
- The cumulative absence is no longer than five years
- The University is notified of the intent to re-enroll within three years, or two years after the end of recovery from injury
- The student was not dishonorably discharged

EXAMINATIONS

Final examinations, or the equivalent, are required for each course. Mid-term examinations, as well as quizzes and/or other classroom assignments, are administered at the discretion of the instructor. Students must take and pass each Clinic Level Entrance Examination, among other requirements including Equipment Safety, Clean Needle Technique (CNT), and Cardio-

Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) and First Aid certifications, before being admitted to each clinical internship level. Students will be tested at various stages of their clinical internship experience to evaluate their progress, competencies, and skills, including Internship Level Examinations before moving on to each of the last two of the three Clinical Internship levels. For further details on the Clinical Internship, please see Course Descriptions, and Oriental Medical Center, below.

PRE-CLINIC COMPREHENSIVE EXAM

All students are required to take the pre-clinic comprehensive exam that is designed to evaluate their readiness to begin the clinical Practice. This exam must be passed with marks of 70% or higher for the student to be eligible to begin the clinical Practice. The fee for the Pre-clinic Comprehensive Exam is $50.00. Students who fail this exam may re-take it.

COMPREHENSIVE GRADUATION EXAM

All students must pass a Comprehensive Graduation Examination (CGE) with a score of 70% or higher. Students may sit for the CGE after they complete all the didactic courses, and have successfully achieved the graduation requirements, and have successfully completed Phase III the clinical practice. Students who fail the Comprehensive Graduation Examination may re-take it. The CGE will be given every trimester based on students' need, and students may take the CGE a total of three times, if necessary. CGE is designed to evaluate a student's academic standing for graduation and to confirm the student's readiness for the California State Licensure examination and the national certification.

GRADING POLICY

Below are some considerations for certain grades, grading options, and notations that are a part of the general University Grading System. The general University grading system is applicable to all classes at CUSV Student performance in our courses is evaluated per the following scale:

W is given to those students who withdraw from a course after the Add/Drop period, but before the 7th week of class. No academic penalty is attached to a grade of "W".

	Letter Grade	GPA	Numeric Value
Superior	A	4.0	94 – 100
	A-	3.7	90 – 93
Above Average	B+	3.3	87 – 89
	B	3.0	83 – 86
	B-	2.7	80 – 82
Satisfactory	C+	2.3	77 – 79
	C	2.0	73 – 76
	C-	1.7	70 – 72
Less than adequate	D+	1.3	67 – 69

	D	1.0	63 – 66
	D-	0.7	60 – 62
Failure	F	0.0	0 – 59
Incomplete	I
Audit	AU
Withdraw	W

WF is given to those students who withdraw from a course from the seventh week forward. A “WF” grade is computed into the student’s CGPA.

I (Incomplete) is given to those who fail to complete all the requirements of the course, because of prolonged illness or because of some other serious circumstance beyond the students control. A fee must be paid by the student and an Incomplete Form must be completed by the student and the instructor and returned to the Registrar. All course requirements must be completed by the end of the following trimester, or the “I” grade will automatically change to a grade of “F”.

PASS/FAIL GRADE POLICY

All required courses must be taken for a letter grade, except for the following, which may be taken Pass/Fail: Qi Gong, Tai Chi, Tui-Na, and Ethics. Electives that are taken in addition to required courses may be taken P/F.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE UNIVERSITY

A student who fails to register for two (2) consecutive trimesters without the Academic Dean’s approval will be considered as withdrawn from the University. Such students must apply for re-admission if they wish to complete their program of study at CUSV and pay ALL the associated fees. Nonattendance of classes or stopping a check for payment does not constitute withdrawal from the University. Notification must be in writing. Students who withdraw from the University, or discontinue their studies without filing a Withdrawal form shall receive a grade of “F” in each course not completed. The following must take place for any student to officially withdraw from the University:

1. Notify the Academic Dean or Registrar of intent to withdraw by completing a Withdrawal Notice form.
2. Clear all outstanding debt with the University.
3. Return all books, materials or equipment owned by the University.

SATISFACTORY PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENTS

In order to remain in good standing in the MTCM program and California University -Silicon Valley, students must meet the following requirements.

1. Maintain a trimester and cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.3 or higher.
2. Earn a grade of 2.3 or higher in each TCM core course. Please note TCM core courses must be taken sequence.
3. Maintain student status via enrollment or approved on-leave status.

GRADUATION/COMPLETION REQUIREMENTS

All graduate candidates must satisfy all graduation requirements that are in effect at the time of their admission to the University unless compliance to new rules or requirements imposed by a regulating agency is required.

The following requirements apply to all graduate candidates:

- File a Notice of Candidacy for Graduation during the final term before graduation
- Clear all financial obligations, including mandatory graduation fees
- Return all library loaned materials to CUSV
- A grade of C or better for all required classes and clinic course works.
- A GPA of 2.30 or better
- Pass the graduation exam

INDEPENDENT STUDY

The Academic Dean may permit students to complete course requirements by means of Independent Study if a course is needed to graduate in a timely manner and that course is not offered during the last trimester for which the student is planned to graduate. Independent Study requires approval by the Academic Dean and only students with a GPA of 3.0 can apply for this privilege. Independent Study is only allowed for a maximum of two (2) courses. Units for Independent Study are awarded based on forty-five (45) hours per unit of study time. A student on Independent Study must regularly meet with the assigned faculty for assessment of learning and to take appropriate quizzes or exams. A student seeking Independent Study must submit an Independent Study Request Form and must meet all applicable regulations or restrictions as published in the Student Handbook and pay the appropriate fees.

ACADEMIC PROGRESS POLICY

Students must maintain satisfactory academic progress (SAP). SAP for all students requires that students must successfully complete 67% of the units they attempt in each consecutive two trimesters with a minimum GPA of 2.3 to maintain their satisfactory academic progress. Students not meeting this requirement are placed on “academic probation.” For a student to maintain their SAP, they must successfully come off of academic probation within two trimesters. Students not meeting this requirement must meet with the Academic Dean. The student must present strong reasons that contributed to their poor progress or they will be dropped from the program. Students that are dropped from the programs will not receive any refunds. Part-time students must complete the MTCM no more than seven years to maintain SAP.

POLICY ON FINISHING INCOMPLETE DIDACTIC COURSES

If didactic coursework has not been completed due to illness, family emergency, unsatisfactory attendance or other event determined by the course instructor to constitute an excusable should retake the course when offered next time. If the student fails to do so without sound reasons, the “I” grade will be converted to an “AW,” Administrative Withdrawal. Students who are withdrawn from courses by the administration will be required to register for, pay for and take the course again to receive a valid grade.

The grade average required for satisfactory completion of a course is a passing grade of 70. Students will receive formal grade reports at the end of each trimester.

The student’s request for an appeal of a grade should be sent to the Academic Officer, who will forward a copy to the instructor. The Academic Officer will arrange a conference with the instructor and the student to discuss the assessment of the final grade. A student who is not satisfied with the outcome may proceed to the Grievance Procedure outlined later in this catalog.

Disputes regarding clinic hours must be discussed with the registrar within 30 days of the posting of the clinic hours. A student who is not satisfied with the outcome may proceed to the Grievance Procedure outlined later in this catalog.

AUDIT POLICY

Currently enrolled CUSV students may register to audit a course when they have taken and passed the course before they are seeking to audit. All audits are subject to availability and must be approved by the Academic/Administration Office. Availability is limited since credit-earning students are a priority. Auditing students cannot take up the time of the instructor or distract credit-earning students from their education. Students auditing classes must abide by all the pertinent rules and regulations such as rules on attendance, academic policies, etc. Students will not be able to take mid-term and final examinations. Failure to abide by the relevant rules will be deemed student misconduct.

TRANSCRIPT

Upon written request, official copies of student academic records will be forwarded to either the student or to a designated addressee. Unofficial copies of student academic transcripts will only be provided to the student, unless exceptional circumstances warrant otherwise.

Requests for academic transcripts may be obtained at the CUSV Administrative Office. Processing of academic transcript requests will be withheld if the student has failed to submit required documents or other items, or has an unpaid balance of fees or other charges owed to the University.

TEACHING CLINIC

Clinical training is one of the important procedures of study in the University. CUSV has the particular teaching procedures and teaching models:

- 1) Enlightening teaching can help to develop students' correct TCM thinking instead of imitating;
- 2) Special needing skills not found in the traditional textbooks are taught in clinical training.
- 3) Special classical and experienced formulae sharing are introduced in clinical training.

Internship Phases

150 hours	Clinic Observation
300 hours	Diagnosis and Evaluation
510 hours	Supervised Practice

CLINIC REQUIREMENTS

An approved course in cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR) is required prior to the entry-level clinical training. A health examination certificate, a recent (within 12 prior months) tuberculosis (TB) test or chest x-ray are also required before enrolling in the Clinic training courses. Further inquiries on entrance requirements for the Teaching Clinic should be directed to the office of Academics Affairs.

MALPRACTICE INSURANCE

CUSV provides the malpractice insurance coverage with American Acupuncture Council for all students.

ADMISSIONS

Welcome to California University – Silicon Valley. We will provide you with a thorough overview of the TCM profession, the Master's degree program that leads to California licensure and national certification. We invite you to visit us, and attend an open house. We look forward to supporting you in your discovery of Traditional Chinese Medicine.

We welcome students seeking to become TCM practitioners from both home and abroad. We attract students who want to pursue degree in Oriental Medicine from very beginning in the United States. We also welcome international students who have a desire to study TCM in the U.S. Our student body includes those currently studying at another TCM school who wish to transfer to our university, and non-degree seeking students who belong to the category of tutorial and want to take some course in our university, and those who are interested in studying Chinese medicine for the enhancement of their personal health and well-being.

Thank you for your interest in California University – Silicon Valley!

Campus Preview Day

Prospective students and their families are encouraged to attend CUSV Campus Preview Day. During the Campus Preview Day, faculty, current students and staff avail themselves to interact with prospective students to answer questions related to all aspects of campus life and the education offered at CUSV. For information or to reserve your space at an upcoming Campus Preview Day Administration Office, call the Office of Admissions 408-532-5567 or visit our website: www.cusv.us.

It is essential that all applicants have sincere commitment and compassion to serve the communities especially the underserved population in need of affordable and effective healthcare. If you share this commitment to providing health care to the global community, then Acupuncture and Traditional Chinese medicine is the right choice for you. The most important thing in choosing a school is to judge its philosophy, curriculum, faculty and administration.

Prior to your applying, we strongly suggest you:

1. Attend a scheduled Campus Preview Day, or;
2. Schedule an appointment with the Admissions Office and arrange for a tour of the campus. Call (408)532-5567 for further information or make an appointment.
3. As a prospective student, you are encouraged to review this catalog prior to signing an enrollment agreement. You are also encouraged to review the School Performance Fact Sheet, which must be provided to you prior to signing an enrollment agreement

ADMISSIONS POLICY

California University – Silicon Valley offers admission to those applicants who have the highest potential for Acupuncture and Oriental medicine (AOM) study and who, with the benefit of AOM education, are most likely to contribute substantially to society and to their academic or professional fields through professional practice.

Because the academic and professional community benefits from a diverse membership, and because the educational experience is enhanced by a diverse student body, the university views as a high priority the enrollment of men and women from different social and economic backgrounds and from different cultural and demographic groups. Successful efforts at overcoming socio-economic, educational, or physical disadvantages are viewed, in combination with other factors, as indicators of future performance.

Admission decisions are based on the quality of the applicant's education background, the statement of purpose, letters of recommendation, preparation in the proposed field of study, and the fit between the applicant's goals and the program.

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

All applicants to CUSV's Master Program of Traditional Chinese Medicine must be at least 18 years old and able to demonstrate competency in comprehending, speaking, reading, and writing in English. All applicable fees must accompany applications, which may be in the form of a check or money order in U. S. dollars payable to California University – Silicon Valley.

Upon receipt of the I-20 form, the international student must pay the US immigration SEVIS fee of USD $200.00 (I-901 fee) before the interview at the US Embassy. Further information can be found at www.uscis.gov.

Transfer Students

If you are a student at another TCM/acupuncture school and are considering transferring to California University – Silicon Valley, you can apply for our Master's program as a transfer student. Our transfer policies ensure that a transfer student's training from another school will meet the high standards of our MTCM program. California University – Silicon Valley accepts transfer applicants who may receive transfer credit for up to 50% of the total program credit requirements. Of that 50%, no more than 25% of the program clinical training requirements may be accepted as transfer credit.

Transfer students must follow the same application and admissions procedures as required of new students, in addition to meeting the transfer student requirements.

Non-Degree Seeking Students Admissions Policy and Procedures

California University – Silicon Valley will consider Non Degree-Seeking (NDS) applicants including: students participating in the California Acupuncture Board-approved tutorial program, licensed acupuncturists, medical doctors and other persons who may be seeking to meet an educational objective other than the Master's degree. NDS students may take courses of the Master's degree program, receive an official transcript showing coursework that has been successfully completed, and request to become a degree-seeking student at any time.

NDS students who are enrolled in courses must meet all of the corresponding program's admission requirements and course prerequisites, or demonstrate sufficient prior education and experience to successfully complete those courses with the exception of physical exercise courses such as Qi Gong and Tai Chi. NDS students must abide by all the pertinent rules and regulations such as rules on attendance, academic policies, etc. NDS students' participation in a course will not be allowed to adversely affect the quality of instruction.

NDS student enrollment status does not require a formal admission process or formal entrance requirements. There is a $100 non-refundable application fee. Students must complete an application form and submit a copy of passport or permanent resident card. NDS students are not eligible for application of CUSV scholarship. Enrollment as a non-degree student does not guarantee regular admission to the University. Students wishing to apply for full admission should refer to the appropriate instructions for admissions.

California University – Silicon Valley doesn't provide advanced placement program.

ADMISSIONS PROCEDURES

Admission Interview

Once your application package and all supporting documents have been received, you will be arranged to have a personal interview with one of the members of the admissions committee in person, online or by phone. The admissions interview is a mutually beneficial process, allowing you the ability to acquire additional information not gained in previous interactions with California University – Silicon Valley, while the admissions committee has the opportunity to get to know you on a more personal level.

Application Review

After your interview, your file will be reviewed by the admissions committee. In evaluating applicants the committee takes into consideration many factors: academic achievement, professional experience, recommendations, accomplishments, personal character, and future potential. California University – Silicon Valley selects students who have a sincere interest in Oriental Medicine, who have an interest in serving others as health care professionals, and who have demonstrated the aptitude to successfully complete the program. Our most successful students are prepared for their TCM education with well-developed study skills and a solid financial plan.

Admissions Decision

You will be notified in writing once a decision has been made by the admissions committee, within two weeks after your interview.

International Applicants Currently Studying in the U.S.

If you are an international student who is currently on an F-1 student visa, enrolled at another college or university, you must submit the following documents along with your application materials:

1. A photocopy of your visa, contained in your passport.
2. A photocopy of your I-20 Form.

Once you have been accepted to California University – Silicon Valley, a Transfer Release Form must be signed by your current school's admissions office, verifying you have maintained your visa status and are eligible for transfer. Please contact the California University – Silicon Valley admissions office to receive a copy of this form. If you have any questions or need additional information regarding the international application requirements, our admissions staff is available to assist you.

New Student Orientation and Registration

One week prior to the beginning of the trimester, you will attend the New Student Orientation and Registration. The orientation reviews registration options, the academic calendar, institution policies, and the Master's program. This is an excellent time to meet faculty, and members of the administration. Student registration is scheduled on the day following orientation. During registration you will meet with an academic advisor to review your class schedule. If you need special assistance with the registration process or with specific scheduling needs, please contact the admissions office for assistance prior to registration day.

All classes are held at 441 De Guigne Dr., Sunnyvale, CA 94085

All inquiries about the application or admissions process should be directed to:

California University – Silicon Valley; Office of Admissions

441 De Guigne Dr. #201, Sunnyvale, CA 94085 Tel: (408)532-5567

ADMISSIONS AND TRANSFER CREDIT POLICIES

ADMISSIONS CREDIT POLICIES

The admissions criteria for the master's program must include the satisfactory completion of at least two (2) years of undergraduate-level education (60 semester credits or 90 quarter credits) from an institution accredited by an agency recognized by the U.S. Secretary of Education. In considering the acceptance of education and training obtained in foreign countries, credits earned at a foreign educational institution must be validated by a recognized, educational credentials, evaluation service.

TRANSFER CREDIT POLICIES

CUSV considers that transferring from another institution is an important decision and makes every effort to ensure the student is fully informed of all issues to make an informed decision. CUSV accepts students in good standing (a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.30), who wish to transfer from other schools of Acupuncture and Oriental medicine. They must meet the current admission standards, follow the same application procedures, and meet the graduation requirements at the time of admission. CUSV requires the submission of Master's degree transcripts from all institutions attended by the transferring student. Additionally, transfer students may also be required to submit further items such as documentation of clinical training hours, course syllabi and/or course descriptions for the arrangement of transfer credit. Transfer students are normally required to meet the Academic Dean and/or Academic officer prior to or at the time of submitting their application.

All transfer credit is granted by the end of the first year of enrollment in the program. Coursework taken at another institution after admission to CUSV is not transferable unless approved in advance in writing by the Academic Dean. Students may not be concurrently enrolled in another Oriental Medicine program.

Evaluation of Transfer Credit

For transfer credit to be awarded, the student must request a transcript review in writing. Request forms are available from the Academic/Administrative Office. Transfer credit requests are reviewed by the Academic Officer and approved by the Academic Dean.

For evaluation of transfer credit, applicants must provide official transcripts sent directly from their school to the CUSV Academic/Administrative Office. Some applicants may also be asked to provide course syllabi.

The entire evaluation record and award of transfer credit is included in the student's academic file.

Transfer Credit Fee

For each credit reviewed and approved for transfer, a $15.00/credit fee will apply, up to a maximum of $100.00.

Transfer Credit requirements

Transfer students are required to successfully complete a minimum 50% of the total program credit requirements, and more than 75% of the program clinical training requirements in residence to graduate from CUSV.

Transfer students must meet the program admissions requirements in effect at the time of their official matriculation.

Credits accepted for transfer into the program must be based on an official transcript received by the institution.

Credits accepted for transfer to meet program graduation requirements should be equivalent to published program degree requirements in content, rigor, and credit hour requirements.

Credits accepted for transfer into the program must have been earned at a post-secondary institution accredited or pre-accredited by an agency recognized by the U.S. Secretary of Education. Credits earned at a foreign educational institution must be validated by a recognized educational credentials evaluation service.

Credits earned more than five (5) years prior to admission may only be accepted for transfer after validating and documenting that the student has retained the content knowledge and competencies of the respective course(s) for which transfer credits are being assessed.

Credit shall be awarded only for actual coursework at the graduate level completed in the specified area of the curriculum.

The final grade in the transferred course must be no less than "C" (2.0 on a 4.0 scale).

A course under consideration is evaluated for equivalency to the comparable CUSV course. Factors considered in determining equivalency are as follows:

- Equivalency of core subject matter.
- Equivalency of course hours. Transfer credit for courses that contained 90% or more of the course hours of instruction required for the comparable CUSV course may be transferred without additional testing or tutoring.

Transfer credit will be accepted for Acupuncture and Oriental medicine coursework that has been successfully completed at an institution accredited by an agency recognized by the US Secretary of Education and approved by the California Acupuncture Board, if the courses are equivalent in content to CUSV courses.

Applicants may receive transfer credit for up to 50% of the total program credit requirements. Of that 50%, no more than 25% of the program clinical training requirements may be accepted as transfer credit. Under this condition, the following requirements should be followed.

- Up to 100% transfer credit may be awarded for courses completed successfully in basic sciences, clinical medicine, case management, practice management, public health, and professional development at a school which is approved under Article 4 (commencing with Section 94770) of Chapter 7 of Part 59 of the Education Code or by an accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.

- Up to 100% transfer credit may be awarded for coursework and clinical instruction completed successfully at another acupuncture school or college which is approved by the California Acupuncture board.
- Up to fifty percent (50%) credit, by transfer or challenge exam, for clinical practice coursework and instruction in acupuncture and Oriental medicine principles, theories and treatment procedures completed successfully at a school which is not approved by the board may be awarded by a school approved by the board, provided that at least 50% of the course hours in individual subjects are completed successfully at a school approved by the California Acupuncture board.
- Where the coursework and clinical instruction were completed at an acupuncture school not approved by the California Acupuncture board, the evaluation shall include an examination administered and retained by the school in the subject area(s) in which transfer credit may be awarded.

No credit will be awarded for Western medical internship or residency training toward the actual clinical coursework and instruction required at California University – Silicon Valley.

Credits earned more than five (5) years prior to admission may only be accepted for transfer after validating and documenting that the student has retained the content knowledge and competencies of the respective course(s) for which transfer credits are being assessed.

In addition, CUSV may require the student to take an examination in the subject areas to demonstrate a level of knowledge comparable to that achieved by a California University - Silicon Valley student in these same subject areas before credit is awarded.

CUSV does not accept credit through prior learning assessment using either or a combination of the following assessment techniques:

(1) Credit by examination through the use of standardized tests. Credit by examination can be earned through successful testing and the recommended college credit equivalencies of the College Scholarship Service's AP (Advanced Placement) examinations, the College Scholarship Service's CLEP (College Level Examination Program) examinations, the American College Testing PEP (Proficiency Examination Program) examinations, PONSI (N.Y. State Department of Education Program on Non-collegiate Sponsored Instruction), the USAFI (U.S. Armed Forces Institute) program, and the DAN TES (Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support) tests.

(2) Assignment of credit for military and corporate training based on recommendations established by the American Council on Education. Credit for military and corporate training may be assigned according to the recommendations established by the American Council on Education in The National Guide to Educational Credit for Training Programs and the Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experience in the Armed Services.

Some state licensing agencies and some institutions may not accept prior learning assessment credits that have been awarded by a non-regionally accredited institution.

CUSV does not currently have an articulation or transfer agreement with any other college or university.

TO MATRICULATED STUDENTS

Currently enrolled students who want to take courses at another institution and transfer the credits to CUSV must submit written application together with course descriptions to the Academic/Administrative Office, and get approval from the Academic Dean prior to registration at the other institution. After completing external coursework, students are responsible for submitting an official transcript to the Academic/Administrative Office. Only grades of “C” or higher may be transferred. Accepted transfer credits are not included in the CUSV grade point average and appear as a “T” on the CUSV transcript. Courses taken under other credit systems will be converted to U.S. semester hour credits. A $100 transfer processing fee, for each trimester is applied to the student’s financial account once the credits are posted to the student’s record.

The following notice is also included in the enrollment agreement:

NOTICE CONCERNING TRANSFERABILITY OF CREDITS AND CREDENTIALS EARNED AT OUR INSTITUTION: The transferability of credits you earn at California University – Silicon Valley is at the complete discretion of an institution to which you may seek to transfer. Acceptance of the credits, degree, diploma, or certificate you earn in the educational program is also at the complete discretion of the institution to which you may seek to transfer. If the credits, degree, diploma, or certificate that you earn at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which you seek to transfer, you may be required to repeat some or all your coursework at that institution. For this reason, you should make certain that your attendance at this institution will meet your educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which you may seek to transfer after attending California University – Silicon Valley to determine if your credits or degree, diploma or certificate will transfer.

LOCATION, ENVIRONMENT, AND FACILITIES

CUSV is located in Sunnyvale, California. Sunnyvale has a mild, temperate climate and, as can be inferred from the name, is quite bright even on overcast days. Average daytime summer temperatures hover between 85° F (29° C) and 95° F (35° C), and during the winter, average daytime temperatures rarely go below 45° F (7° C). The City of Sunnyvale ranked the fifth-safest city in America in its population group of 100,000 to 499,999 in the 11th annual Morgan Quitno Safest Cities in America awards. The campus setting is serene and quiet, only a few blocks away south of the north-southbound highway 101's exit at Lawrence Expressway.

CAMPUS FACILITIES

The facility is a two-story building, totals 17,500 sqf. with ten teaching clinic rooms, four big and medium classrooms, a large Auditorium (CUSV Science Center), conference room, and six well-lighted, comfortable and spacious classrooms with white boards. In addition, each room is equipped with acupuncture manikins and class related posters. Wi-Fi is accessible all over the Campus.

The Campus is well landscaped with tall palm trees, lawns and plum trees. The enjoyable views please one's spirit, also brings fresh icons to rejuvenate the body. Standing in the campus, facing the building, looking up the top, you will be enchanted with the colorful scenery with the blue sky as background, brightened with California sunshine.

PARKING

The university has more than ample parking spaces with no charge to students. Most parts are shaded by tall pine and plum trees. Handicapped spaces and ramps are also available.

LIBRARY

The University has a library where all students have access to the books and materials related to their educational needs. Library is open during school office hour. Students can access the library and check out books and journals.

The University Library serves the university community for scholarly study and research endeavors. The library facilities offer reading rooms, individual study carrels, and a student conference room. Total book volumes number approximately 3,500, and the current reference collection comprises over 300 journals, periodicals, and magazines. Reflecting the curricula of the University, Chinese and English language instructional holdings can be used to reinforce and support students' academic success.

STUDENT'S RIGHT-TO-KNOW DISCLOSURE

The student Right-to-Know Act requires schools disclose the completion or graduation rates for a specific cohort of the general student body as determined by the school.

This cohort is made up of degree-seeking, full-time, first-time graduate students. Since the rate of graduation changes from one trimester to another, please visit the Administrative Office for the information, if you are interested.

CUSV maintains fair and reasonable practices in all matters affecting students such as the delivery of educational programs, provision of support services, and timely resolution of disciplinary matters, as well as the handling of grievances. In addition, the University endorses the basic principles of the codes of ethics issued by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO).
